During the Sydney Boys High School Book Fair on 28 May, many books of interest to senior students will be available to purchase and donate.

The Children's Bookshop at Beecroft is supplying all the latest titles at discounted prices so look at our online catalogue to see what's available.

If you decide to choose and donate a book (your book will then be put aside) you will need to fill out this order form with payment details and send this back to Ms Gordon, the Senior Librarian.

Once paid for and processed you will have first option to borrow and read your donated book.
