

From the Relieving Principal

Doctor Jaggar is currently on leave. He is due to return on Tuesday 30 August.

The Governors' Centre

As advised in last week's High Notes, planning is progressing on a joint project between Sydney Boys High School and Sydney Girls High School to construct a two-storey Centre for Excellence in Education fronting Cleveland Street on the site of the SGHS tennis court. The centre will include a 400 seat tiered auditorium suitable for lectures, seminars, conferences, productions and performances and other facilities designed to improve spaces available for performing arts for the two schools. Arrangements for funding the new centre were discussed at the School Council and P&C meetings on Wednesday 17 August. Both meetings supported unanimously the proposal that a levy be instituted to raise the funds required for the building of the centre. It was proposed that parents be levied $500 in Term 3 each year. An alternate arrangement would be to commit to a Direct Debit of $50 each month. Due to the nature of these payments, they are fully tax-deductible. In late June or early July each year you will receive a receipt for the donations made. If each of our 1000 families agreed to a $50 Direct Debit each month, we would raise $600 000 each year towards the project. The facilities that our boys currently enjoy (such as the Senior Library, the Outterside Centre, McKay Playing Fields) have been provided through the efforts of past parents and students. The Governors' Centre is an exciting project available to the current High family.

Year 12's final weeks

Year 12 will finish their Trial HSC examinations next week. Normal classes will resume on Monday 29 August and continue until Friday 16 September. On Monday 19 September Year 12 boys will be involved in collecting money for OASIS in support of homeless youth. The Farewell Assembly will be held on Tuesday 20 September. Dr Jaggar recently wrote to parents of Year 12 students to advise them of the arrangements for the rest of Term 3. He reminded boys and their parents that we expect a high standard of behaviour from our students, particularly at this time of the year. Year 12 boys at High have developed the tradition of celebrating their end of formal schooling with good works.

DIE DEUTSCHE FRAGE

Am letzten Freitag kamen die "High Notes" in der zweiten Stunde in die Klassenzimmer. (Period 2) Ganz viele Jungen hatten die richtige Antwort (very many boys ...) Nelson Tang (Yr 10) war der erste Senior, Samuel Gallagher (Yr 9 – and he doesn't even do German but he had some help from his friend!) der erste Junior und dann noch Wilber Koslowski (Yr 10)(he had spent the whole day at debating and only got the HN on his return) bekamen einen Schokoriegel. (At this rate I need a pay rise!) Die Antwort war: the German soccer team had removable studs on their boots, which could be changed according to the surface conditions, a new invention by Adi Dassler – who founded ADIDAS – and that gave them the edge over the Italians.

Die neue Frage: ein deutscher Staatsmann und ein Gericht (meal - perhaps more a snack), das seinen Namen hat.

Canteen roster:

Could volunteers please let canteen staff know the night before your day to help if you don't think you will be able to make it? (Their phone numbers are on the roster sheet.) This will give them a chance to possibly get an emergency replacement for you otherwise they are left short staffed the next day.

We appreciate whatever help we get – if anyone can help on any of the days where you see we have only had 1-2 helpers, then please give canteen a call.

The staff, other helpers and the boys will very much appreciate the extra help

Our volunteers for last week were....MONDAY: Kate Price, Jane Lin TUESDAY: Robyn Gordon, Elsa Li, Mehrnoosh Johnstone WEDNESDAY: Jim O'Sullivan, THURSDAY: Kamala Selvakkumar, Nancy Andrew, June Wu, FRIDAY: Nina Ilina Liu, Soogie Sim, Frances Salmon....Thank you all very much

The Governors' Centre for Excellence in Education

A SBHS and SGHS Joint Project

A CAPITAL WORKS UPDATE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Parents, Staff and Students

Following on from last week's announcement of the SBHS and SGHS Governors' Centre joint project, I would like to outline our past program of capital works and thank the school family for its generosity in supporting the program to date.

The NSW Department of Education and Communities provides SBHS and other NSW public schools with limited annual funding for repairs and maintenance of existing school infrastructure and there is a waiting list for state government funding for new facilities. NSW public schools have adapted to this situation by engaging their school communities to raise funds for the additional capital works necessary to maintain and improve school facilities to a standard our students deserve.

During the 11 years since 2000 SBHS has, through a combination of government grants, parent, old boy and community contributions to building funds, invested more than $2.3 million in capital works projects to improve facilities for current and future students. This completed program is a considerable achievement for which I thank each and every parent who over the years has made voluntary contributions to our building funds - often well beyond what the school has asked for.

In addition, a further $1.1 million has been accumulated in the SBHS Building Fund, which has provided us with the opportunity to undertake major capital works projects such as the Governors' Centre. The school is currently in consultation with the various school family representative bodies to finalise our funding path for this project and I expect to be able to provide more details of the outcome of this consultation next week.

Over the years, the Sydney Boys High School family has demonstrated an enormous capacity to support our school – for this I thank you.

Dr K A Jaggar

SBHSDEBATING

I am still aghast that many parents and debaters have not signed up for the Debating emails. I write these every week and it is my main way of communicating with debaters and their parents about important debating events, feedback on results and important information about teams. This week we had the opportunity to field a third Year 7 team, but nearly lost it because some students had not read the Teams email. A big thank you, by the way, to parents who brought their sons (and in Mr Chao's case) another boy back to school to debate and to the boys who were flexible enough to move teams. Please sign up to the email by following the instructions at the bottom of the page.

We debated Scots this week and I was very proud to see so many boys bringing in plates of food to share. Our supper looked and tasted great. Thank you to Nina, Eden and Norman who did a marvellous job of preparing things for us. I also wanted to thank my trusty helpers – Eamon and Shuming who did an excellent job assisting me on the night and thanks to Samson who stuck around to watch some of his rugby- playing debaters and also ran around opening doors which had mysteriously been locked.

Our Year 11 PDC team debated in the Regional Final against Fort Street on Friday and won. Rumour has it that the following debate was to decide who would debate SBHS in the next round, which is at state level and that when the debaters heard that we had won they said "Oh no!". Our reputation precedes us – Congratulations and keep up the excellent effort boys.

This week we are off to Riverview for our last away match of the GPS season and thus of the year. The week after is the BIG debating event as we debate Grammar. The Great Hall is booked for the First debate which will take place at 8pm. All are welcome and all Junior and Intermediate Debaters who want to improve are encouraged to attend.

Report: P&C Meeting – Wednesday 17th August 2011

We held a well attended and informative P&C meeting last Wednesday with the main agenda items being The Governors' Centre for Excellence in Education - the joint building project with SGHS announced by Dr Jaggar last week – and discussion and voting on a proposal to alter the way in which the Capital Campaign works now. The deadline for High Notes submissions is Wednesday (before the meeting occurred) so a full report will appear next week. However, we would like to recap the proposal and discussions points for the P&C meeting that was held on 17th August.

As you know our school needs more space. The Governors' Centre for Excellence in Education project will give us more classroom space, an auditorium/lecture theatre as well as debating, teaching, music and drama rehearsal spaces. To strengthen the joint application for government funding, the school communities of both schools need to demonstrate substantial financial commitment to the project. Together, the two schools have set a target of $2 million accumulated building funds for each school. The Girls school is ahead of us in saving to reach this target. We need to catch up. The SBHS Building Fund has a current balance of $1.1 million.

Proposal:

- That a capital works voluntary contribution be introduced this term.
- That for 2011 the voluntary contribution be invoiced in Week 6.
- That for the next two years (2012 and 2013) the voluntary contribution be invoiced at the start of Term III.
- That families choosing to contribute have the choice of paying $500 each year in a lump sum or joining the monthly giving program at $50.00 per month. All payments would be fully tax deductible.

Discussion points for proposal:

- The joint project with SGHS is a once in a generation opportunity for the two schools to join forces and establish a landmark education facility, but we need to accumulate capital at a faster rate to bring the project to fruition.
- Previous Capital Campaigns have been successful in raising sufficient funds for targeted capital works programs (for example, the Senior Library) but the amounts that can be raised using the current Capital Campaign model would be insufficient to reach our target of $2 million quickly enough.
- Government funding is increasingly difficult to secure and schools create their best chances by demonstrating substantial community financial support for a significant project such as the Governors' Centre.
- A capital works voluntary contribution at a suggested level of $500.00 is more equitable as every family is directly asked to contribute but there is no expectation for families who cannot afford to pay.
- SGHS has successfully used this voluntary capital works contribution model with a $500 annual contribution level.

If you could not attend the P&C meeting last Wednesday but would like to offer your comments, please email the P&C: sbhs.pandc@gmail.com

THE ONION BAG

Football United

Those at the season launch will remember the presentation by Stuart Meney for Football United. Stuart emailed a request for donations. It reads as follows:

Football United uses the magic of football to engage with youth and children in diverse communities in Western Sydney. We aim to build youth and community capacity, improve leadership and responsibility skills and, of course, facilitate free, regular football training. Programs run in Auburn, Fairfield, Granville, Liverpool, Blacktown and Airds supporting youth of refugee, recent migrant and Aboriginal backgrounds.

Many youth and children are hindered in their pathway to regular participation due to the lack of equipment. Relying on grants for funding, Football United cannot provide a football kit for each of the 800 or so participants. We provide a t-shirt and shin-pads for each player. As such, with Sydney Boys High School's season coming to an end, Football United are hoping to source as many football boots of good quality that can be donated to some of our participants, as well as good quality shorts. All sizes are welcome.

Donations can be made to Mr Gifford or Mr Mulroney, who can pass them onto Football United.

Observations from the side line.

1st grade suffered yet another agonising defeat, 2-nil, after dominating the early exchanges. Coach Hazrati had to field a weakened squad due to illness and injury and all boys should be proud of their determined effort for the full 80 minutes. Oliver Meroni was twice denied by outstanding one on one saves by an agile Scots keeper. Two opportunistic goals by Scots in the second half sealed High's fate.

The 2nd grade team let a 1-nil lead slip, losing 2-1. High's goal was scored by Jon Ren from the spot.

Fixtures this weekend

This Saturday is the last round of the GPS season. We have matches v Riverview as well as a variety of other schools. Check the school website for details.

End of season reports

This Saturday is the last match of the season. Captains are asked to submit their end of season report for the 2011 Record.

VOLLEYBALL – ROUND 9

This round saw us against Scots. The issues we had last week with Riverview had gone but we were faced with a new set: most of the Firsts were preparing for Trials and others were involved in other matches. Although this meant a lack of experience it did give the Seconds a chance to move up and also allow others to come into the team. In the end it was a good contest which all enjoyed.

The Seconds started strongly and were soon a few points clear. Despite some very good attacks from Scots these advantages were not overcome and we ended up decent winners. Scots Firsts had more experience but they were also without their captain and key player due to an injury in training. The loss was felt by the visitors but they were going to fight for every point with a final score failing to demonstrate the more competitive nature of the game.

These official games are often mirrored by junior squads. Some of our GPS schools, notably Grammar, have volleyball squads going down to Year 9 or even Year 8. This means that our junior players have the opportunity to get some match practice as well as have an enjoyable time. The shouts of support from these matches certainly add to the atmosphere in the gym which can be quiet without them. We can report this week that both Junior A and B teams beat their respective Grammar sides 3-1.

This week the statistics introduce a number of new faces for both Firsts and Seconds. Their results are:

Player	Passing Accuracy % (number of contacts)	Serving Efficiency % (number of contacts)	Spiking and Blocking Efficiency (number of contacts)	Kills (Spike or Block)	Massive Ups	Total %

SBHS RUGBY

High Rugby = High Spirit

SBHS Junior Rugby Camp

During the recent holidays, SBHS rugby held its junior rugby camp at the Great Hall in what has since been described as 'the best' sporting camp ever. This new 'standard' of sporting camps saw 13s and 14s rugby players arrive at MPW on a Thursday afternoon to receive specialist coaching supported by the ARU. Following the insightful session, players made themselves comfortable in the Great Hall whilst dinner was being prepared. An obligatory Simpsons episode was shown on the big screen prior to a delicious meal of lasagne and fresh salad prepared by and with many thanks to Mr Hannon, Mr G Barris, Geoff and Nada Andrews. Trivia night followed which not only provided great entertainment, but also provided an opportunity for boys to further their rugby knowledge. A movie was shown afterwards before lights were turned off and murmurs continued late into the night. With another training session after breakfast, players experienced a camp which was fun and fulfilling. This team bonding event only furthered their development heading into term 3.

Weekend Results

Round 6 of the GPS competition saw High play Scots last Saturday. Given the rain that poured down on Friday, the fixtures weren't looking too promising but on Saturday morning, the sun shone out with all its glory to produce a beautiful day perfect for rugby. Whilst Scots showed why they were becoming a true rugby powerhouse in the GPS competition, High played with spirit and energy showing body language that defied any score line. With little regard for the scores, players ensured their top priority was to have fun and enjoy playing together as a team. Some teams recorded excellent wins, others recorded competitive score lines. But regardless, the comments from parents on both sides were of encouragement and respect clearly demonstrating what High rugby is about. High spirit is alive and well – in the 14Bs, despite being 3 tries down with 10 minutes to play, refusing to believe the match was over, a ferocious maul saw Alex So score his 2nd try of match. This spirit lifted the team to almost score again off the kickoff. Although the team ran out of time, they demonstrated once again with the right attitude and spirit, anything is possible.

Upcoming Fixtures – Final Round

Back to McKay Family day: This week we will be playing our last games of the season. All teams will be playing at McKay in what will be another fantastic day of rugby. So bring the family, bring some friends, meet other parents, take some photographs of the boys in action, have something to eat and drink from the canteen and BBQ and be a part of Family day at McKay! For the Year 12 players, it will be their last rugby game playing for High, so let's create a memorable atmosphere with the biggest crowd of the season for the boys that have put on the High Jersey week in week out over the past 6 years. Those that witnessed the Grammar fixture earlier in the season must agree that a loud and supportive crowd can have a dramatic and positive effect on the players. Even if you are playing an early fixture, we strongly encourage all boys to stay back and support the 1st XV – award scheme points apply if you mark your name off at half time. Also, a reminder that players are often needed to 'bench' for other teams playing at later times so please plan your Saturdays with this in mind. Finally, if the weather is wet or threatening on Saturday morning, you should still go to the ground unless the match has been cancelled on the SBHS website www.sydneyboyshigh.com. If there is any cancellation, the school will try to update the website by 7:15am.
