

From the Principal High Talent

At the GPS Swimming carnival at SOPAC on Friday night last, the High team performed creditably. Kazuo Nakamura (14 years) won the 50m freestyle and 50m fly, was 2nd in the 100 fly and 3rd in the 100m backstroke. Leonard Mah was runner up in three events – 15 years 100m and 50m freestyle and the 50m breast stroke. Darren Chien won the 15-16 100m breast stroke and was runner up in the 50m. Kevin Guo won the 50m breaststroke and was 2nd in the 100m. Harvey Luo placed 2nd in the 12 years 50m breast stroke and backstroke. Michael Sawang was 2nd in the 15 years 50m back stroke and Eugene Lee 2nd in the 16 years 50m fly. Jason Qiu placed 3rd in the 100m freestyle and Kim Kyne was 3rd in the 14 years 50m breast stroke. Members of the successful 16 years 4 x 50m medley relay team were: Eugene Lee, Yu Peng Man, Dominic Mah and Darren Chien. Eugene Lee, Michael Sawang, Yu Pang Man and Leonard Mah placed 3rd in the 15-16 4 x 50 freestyle relay. At the Zone carnival our Age champions were: Harvey Luo (12 years), Michael Sawang 15 years and the 14 years was shared among Kazuo Nakamura, Jacob Katafono and Adam Smagarinsky. Congratulations to all our swimmers! Well done to Shobhan Baranwal (10) on his award of the green (Adventurer) cord from the North Sydney Scouts Association.

From blended delivery to normalised digital pedagogy

Mal Lee, in Australian Teacher Magazine, term 1 2012, takes up the issue of wasted technology. His main point is that if teachers are not routinely using technology, then their students, at least at school, will not use the devices they have been issued with. [At High we have had a blended delivery model for some years where teachers control the mix of ICT, traditional instruction and laptop use.] He applauds the astute 24/7/365 use of technology by some schools in partnership with parents. He refers to "the evolution of a more networked and collaborative mode of schooling" - a goal of what we are trying to accomplish at High. Does our school really work "within a networked operational paradigm"...and have we "normalised the use of the digital in the everyday teaching of all staff"...and are we "collaborating every day with our homes" to teach our students better? We have been stressing a learning model where our teachers collaborate with each other and encourage the students to do the same. However, in a society in which schooling accounts for only 20% of a young person's annual teaching and learning time, what are we trying to do to influence our students' learning in the other 80% of their time? Schools are now integrating their digital and teaching capacity with that of their young people's homes. Have we a genuine belief in the value of authentic and open collaboration with students and parents in their homes? The smart approach to technological advancement is to introduce a policy of BYOT- bring your own technology. In such a model the school provides the infrastructure and the student's home provides the "preferred personal mobile technology". "Personal choice, preference and the market determine the choice and purchase of the home/student persona technology. The notebook is fast disappearing from the market. Our reliance on the ICT expert model ought to disappear too. I am interested in parent reaction to the possibilities of opening up more pathways for teacher-parent collaboration in learning. Parents can access a great deal of information through the Parent Portal about when, where, what and how their sons will be taught and assessed. Perhaps more structures can be devised to make learning more effective and improve student outcomes.

SBHS Library Fund Committee

The SBHS Library Fund Committee (K Jaggar, J Walker, E Sadler) met this week (6/3/2012) to review the progress of the two library program and to assess future library needs for the school. The 2011 financials for the SBHS Library Fund were: balance bf $23,217; receipts $125,260; payments $126,625 – books, magazines, subscriptions, consumables $24181, wages for Librarian, SAO, overtime and archives $100,334; maintenance $249; capital equipment $1861; and balance of $21,852. In addition, $8271 was spent from the school account. The operations of the two libraries are sustainable but ongoing improvement will not be possible without either a higher overall compliance rate from parent donations to the Fund or a higher amount than $125 per family to be suggested. It was agreed that a five-year plan for the libraries was needed. Given the annual expenditure of resources (c $113 per student), it was agreed that an evaluation of the first five years of operation of the two libraries ought to be undertaken. It would be helpful if the Committee had data on: usage by boys, numbers and high demand times, student satisfaction – how well they think the libraries serve them – the adequacy of facilities and resources, borrowing habits and improvements needed. The Committee was interested in exploring possibilities to expand the supervised area of the Senior Library during peak usage time to promote more cooperative work but also to allow more opportunity for areas of quiet study.

What's Up in the McDonald Senior Library

Great new resources are currently arriving in the Senior Library and will soon be available for loan. As previously announced there are some resources that have been allocated as "In Library Use" only and are available from behind the front desk for Period loans. These include popular and recent study guides in the Coroneos Publications series, Cambridge Checkpoints 2011 and 2012 HSC and new Preliminary (Physics, Chemistry and Biology) courses, plus English resources on Belonging and Advanced Modules and Electives by Barbara Stanners; also UMAT resources including new ones on order, umat 123.

Cambridge are once again running their Photo Competition where students can win an iPad and have their photos published on Cambridge Checkpoints HSC 2013 covers! Competition details are at: www.cambridge.edu.au/hscphotocomp Have a look at the current copies of Cambridge Checkpoints in various subjects for ideas and get snapping!

Recently I have had enquiries about how to purchase personal copies of the Checkpoints books for $21.00 instead of RRP of $28.00! So if interested, students can purchase the books themselves through Sydney Books Online @ their website. If you would like to make enquiries you can also ring them on 02-95593220.

DIE DEUTSCHE FRAGE IM MÄRZ

Last week's photo was taken in a large German department store cum supermarket (Karstadt for those in the know) and I immediately had a mental image of impecunious Aussie backpackers slaving away in a cool room to produce hand-made Australian ice cream. Not so – the product comes from Holland and it was identified by Kabir Agrawal (Yr 8)! The price in Euros as well as the German spelling "Eiscreme" were the clues.

Today's question once again requires keen eyes and it is a return to more familiar territory: "Blut wo???"

SBHSDEBATING

MIC Report

It was great to see so many new faces at the Debating Supporters Group meeting and the Parents Information Evening on Thursday. We welcome the contributions of all parents and, in fact, we cannot function successfully without support from the parent body. If you were unable to attend the meeting but would like to get involved please do not hesitate to contact me.

One key part of the evening I would like to emphasize is about how parents can support debating

- At the very least please make sure you send food to school if your son is debating at home and that your son always has a safe form of transport home from the debate.
- Ensure that you have signed up to the Gmail account and regularly check your emails.
- Read the High Notes and talk to your son about the debating program.
- You could volunteer to help out with suppers.
- You could volunteer to do parking
- You could consider taking one of the positions in the DSG.
- Watch your son debate.
- Please pay your co-payments.

A reminder that this week co-payments are due. I have finalised numbers in coaching now and we have 244 students who are attending coaching each week. This is a huge increase from last year and a wonderful boost for the programme. Our co-payments represent extremely good value as the Program runs for 24 weeks and we have such fantastic coaches to support the boys in developing their debating skills. In addition we enter 4 major competitions more than all other schools. Please, when you receive your invoice, pay promptly.

Debating Prefect Report

After a long break from debating the first round is always tough, but High managed to start the year very well last week, taking on Scots in Eastside and Knox in the Friday Evening Debating competition. In the Eastside competition the Year 7s, experiencing their first taste of high school debating, managed to grab their first of hopefully many wins, though unfortunately the Year 8 and Year 9 teams lost their debates. Similarly in FED we had mixed results in the juniors, with the Year 7 and Year 9 teams losing but our Year 8s pulling out a win. However the standout performance has to go to our senior teams, who won all their debates in both competitions. A lesson for all our juniors: stick with the debating program and the improvement by the senior years is massive, and watching senior debates is a great way to learn and improve.

After an ecstatic win over Grammar, the boys headed into the final home match with confidence and momentum facing a strong King's outfit. However, torrential rain all week forced the boys to prepare indoors rather than training out on-court. Saturday didn't turn out to be much different with the boys turning up to find the courts under water. After having to dry the courts the rubber was able to be commenced at 12:45pm. Number 3 doubles, Robert and Adam unfortunately lost quickly against opponents who were just more experienced and consistent, 0-6 0-6. Frank and Lachlan in the number 2 doubles trailed 3-4 in the first set before a momentum swing of 6 straight games saw us take out the first set and establish a good lead in the second before rain affected play, 6-4 3-0 unfinished. Number 1 doubles, Brian and Patrick were looking to fight back in the second set after losing the first, however their match was also affected by rain, 2-6 1-2 unfinished. After numerous attempts to dry the courts, 3 to be exact, the persistent rain unfortunately forced the rubber to be abandoned. The final result, 6.5 to 5.5 matches in favour of Kings, an unfortunate result for the boys with the number 3 doubles going down just before the rain. However, despite the result High remains in 5th position with an excellent opportunity next week against Joeys to finish a respectable 4th place.

2nd Grade

On Saturday our team faced a strong King's side. We were lucky to get on court, there being rain right up until 11am. In all three doubles matches our team found ourselves on the back foot with King's serving big and dominating at the net. We were unable to win any of these matches even though all our score lines improved in the second set. In the singles King's continued their good momentum, and won all their matches easily. We finished the day down 9 matches to 0, a disappointing score line on our behalf. We hope to improve upon this performance when we play St Joseph's College next week in what will be a battle for seventh place.

IN THE SWIM

Swimming Team Meeting

Max Chien, Year 12, was elected to the Captain's position and George Dzero Year 11 was elected as Vice Captain. A big thank you to Shaun Pak who resigned from his Vice Captain's position as he is already Captain of Water Polo. Thanks to Ennes Mehmedbasic whose stalwart contribution to the High Swimming Squad will be sorely missed.

Swimmers were asked to assist the MIC by taking on various duties. Swimming will become very self-serve like a supermarket with swimmers asked to put their own swimming times into spreadsheets on the R Drive and a "Latest Notice" board being set up on the R Drive to remind everyone of things needing doing. Thank you to James Chee who is taking on the In the Swim High Notes Article. (He can do with some help.) Year 10s could assist by constructing a swimming Website?? Any volunteers see Mrs Crothers.

All swimmers are to check their GPS latest Program which will go into the R drive every Wednesday before a swim. Any swimmer who cannot make it is to find a same age replacement and email this information to Mrs Crothers before school ends on Friday. Only in severe emergencies are they to call Mrs Crothers on her mobile before 6pm at the Pool. This mobile number can be found in the R drive/Swimming/MIC Contact

Combined High Schools Eastern Suburbs Zone Carnival Report – results on Corkboard & R Drive

The depth and strength of the High Squad was demonstrated by the results of the Eastern Suburbs Zone Carnival which was held last week. 58 swimmers came in 1st place. 32 swimmers got 2nd place and 7 got 3rd place. These places would be impossible to achieve unless the boys trained many mornings a week. High is grateful to swimmers and their parents training commitment.

Swimmers, mindful of a full GPS Swimming Program the next night, and for many a Saturday follow up with other GPS Commitments, avoided the 200 metre swims but participated with great success in the other events.

The "unreal" trophy goes to Harvey Luo (Year 7) and Jason Qiu who each swam in 9 events with Kazuo Nakamura (Year 8) close behind swimming in 8 events.

Our dominant performance against King's last week meant that with one game remaining we are equal first on the table with Scots. It is possible for us to be outright premiers if Shore beats Scots this week, which is possible given how close the competition has been this season. For the final game of the season (and for our seniors the last GPS game they will play in the blue and brown) please come and support our first grade side at Joeys!!!

THANK YOU

With our final home game for the season completed, now would be a good time to thank all the supporters who turn up for our home games. It is really important that we create a strong "High" atmosphere to exploit the advantage that a home fixture gives us and I'm proud to say that the majority of games have been well attended.

Annual Basketball Dinner

The date for this year's basketball dinner is 30th March, which is week 10 of this term. Tickets are on sale and can be purchased from the payments office in the foyer. Editor for Shootin' Hoops

Shootin' Hoops is looking for a new editor to maintain the column each week. Anyone is suitable, including Year 7s and people not involved with the basketball program but looking to become a part of it. If you are interested see Mr Hayman in the PDHPE staffroom for more details.

High Tide

Sydney Boys High School Sailing

3 March 2012

Sydney High hosted its first official regatta last week as part of the old Tri-Series, in Double Bay. The wind was a fresh 10-15 knots with rain squalls frequently moving across the course. With the additional swell/bump and with the fresher wind Sydney High sailors were given an advantage of using their home turf, in Double Bay, off Point Piper.

The results were not outstanding although the yardstick of three top ten places was met in the first "long course" race was met in the first race. The results in the second race were less impressive due to bad starts by many High sailors. This aspect of sailing needs to be improved in the future to ensure a better overall result.

Again the better sailors of Cranbrook and Scots were the ones to beat with Ennes Mehmedbasic the only standout High sailor this week. His consistency of results should place him well in the overall point score for Saturdays. Marcus James sailed well to gain a 5th and 13th place and Daniel Fang and David Evans both managed a top ten finish helped by their crews. Sydney High crews still need to learn their rules of sailing to ensure that they are not disadvantaged by other sailors during races. It is essential for skippers and crews to make their courses and rights known to other boats in the race.

Also High crews must try to think more strategically in their races, not just follow the leader. Knowledge of the flags on the start boat would also need further study to ensure their understanding of the course being sailed.

Special thanks to Tim Zhang, Vincent Xu, Dexter Gordon, York Wang and Mr N. Evans who volunteered their time on the start boat as race officials.

Big Night Out

A reminder that the Big Night Out, our only whole of school social event, is being held on Sunday 1 April at 5:00pm – just over three weeks away. Tickets for the event will be on sale at the General Office from Monday 12 March. Tickets cost $20.00 (per head) from the office or $25.00 at the door. Please remember to send your boy to school with your ticket order and payment as soon as possible.

We would be grateful if you could buy your tickets at the General Office rather than at the door, as it is of great benefit to our catering volunteers in providing an accurate number for catering. Remember that the whole family is welcome. The BNO is excellent value with 3 courses and a full schedule of entertainment including music, dance, theatre and games at just $20.00 a head. Drinks will be available for purchase on the night or you may BYO if you prefer. We look forward to seeing you there.

P&C General Meeting Wednesday 21 March

The next P&C General Meeting will be held in the staff common room at 7pm on Wednesday 21 March.

Please note the date in your diary. At this meeting, parents need to consider the P&C budget and spending priorities for the coming year. It's very important that parents take this chance to have their say on projects the P&C should be considering. Dr Jaggar will address the meeting on the School's project priorities for 2012. The P&C Levy, which you pay as part of your annual fee contribution, entitles you to vote at meetings, including on P&C spending priorities.

Upcoming P&C Parking Events

Saturday 10 March 7:45pm– Sydney FC v Melbourne Victory (Music)

Sunday 11 March 3:00pm–Roosters v Panthers (Basketball)

Saturday 17 March 7:40pm– Waratahs v Western Force (Rugby)

Sunday 18 March 2:00pm–Roosters v NZ Warriors (School)

We remind parents that parking provides valuable funds for our sons' co-curricular activities - so if you haven't volunteered previously, please consider involving yourself. It requires no experience and provides an excellent opportunity to enjoy a chat with other parents (before it gets busy).
