

From the Principal High Talent

Well done to Marcus James, Connor Robinson (Year 11), David Evans (Year 10) and Tiger Zang and Kai Matsumoto who represented High in the NSW Teams Racing Sailing championships last Friday and Saturday. The team finished 5th of the schools and 8th overall in open competition from 19 teams – a great result. Congratulations to the team (and to Beck Loder and Laylee Walker from SGHS) and to our Coach Adam South and Manager, Graham Moody.

One of our parents who works in Defence commented favourably on the marching and playing abilities of our Marching Band on Anzac Day. Thank you to Lachlan Deacon for preparing the group so well and also thanks to Rita Miller, Michael Crouch and Suzanna Lim for mentoring the boys and managing them on the day. Congratulations to Shobhan Baranwal (Year 10) who played in the NSW Public Schools Symphonic Wind Orchestra – Junior B and with the NSW Schools Symphonic Wind ensemble – Junior A. Both groups were successful in the National Band Championships in Melbourne. Ennes Mehmedbasic (Year 12) made it through to the final of the Kuringai Philharmonic Orchestra Concerto competition – congratulations!

Well done to our Bandaged Bear volunteers. They raised $10,633! In the National Latin Examination, William HO and Timothy Chin (Year 12) were awarded gold medals and qualified for scholarships. In the Classical Teachers Association production of "Cupid and Psyche", major roles were won by Christopher Chen (Jupiter) and Jens Waring (The King) - well done indeed boys!

At the Combined Independent Schools swimming meet, Leonard Mah qualified for All Schools in the 50m freestyle – an outstanding effort! Congratulations to our other representatives: Kevin Guo, Darren Chien, Kazuo Nakamura, Kyne Kim and Micael Sawang for their efforts. Thank you to our volunteer timekeepers – James Tinker and Andrew Tracjevski.

Every Student, Every School: Learning and Support

Every Student, Every School: Learning and Support is a national partnership strategy to build the capacity of all NSW schools to improve outcomes for students with disability and additional learning and support needs. There are Disability Standards for Education published in 2005. There are 90,000 students enrolled in NSW public schools with additional learning and support needs. A learning and support framework has been designed with 5 elements. Professional development for teachers is one of them, as is collaborating with parents to develop and implement personalised adjustments for the learning and support needs of students. Let's hope that students in need everywhere benefit from the shift of emphasis from the categories of their disabilities to their additional educational needs.

The world of gaming

In a society in which the overwhelming majority of teenagers play games of one kind or another, online gaming is just another thing that kids do. However, socially acceptable pass times, such as gambling and alcohol use, do lead to addictive behaviour for a small minority of people in adult society. Similarly, we can expect that a small minority of our students are not coping with gaming in their lives. There comes a time, paralleling experience in the adult world, when professional intervention is needed to restore a healthier lifestyle for sufferers. Researchers have confirmed certain behaviours that may indicate dysfunctional gaming in teenagers' lives. Declining school performance, signs of depression, cutting back or giving up on previous activities, such as sports or hobbies, not seeing established friends any more or only associating with gamers, isolating behaviour – alone with a computer wherever possible, missing meals – these are seen as indicative of addictive behaviour. Left untreated, the likelihood is that the addiction will become more intense and the symptoms more severe.

There are more professionals working in the area of gaming addiction now. If you have a problem or you know someone who has, advise them to see the School Counsellor or to contact their nearest youth mental health centre. It is appropriate for all students to be informed about the possible risks associated with many activities in their lives, gaming included. If you would like to know more about this issue, a recent Catalyst program provides useful insights. Access it at - <http://www.abc.net.au/catalyst/stories/3488130.htm>

Boggabilla Exchange 2012

This year the exchange will begin with our visit to Boggabilla at the same time as our visit to TAS. This will reduce travel time overall. If boys who are interested in going but are not involved in the TAS visit they must see Mr Barris immediately. The plan then is to travel to Armidale on Friday June 1, participate in the exchange and then travel to Boggabilla on the Sunday, approximately a four hour drive. We will visit the natural springs in Goondawindi the neighbouring town in Queensland and then stay in the gymnasium at the school on the Sunday night. The next day we will spend experiencing bush life and camping and then return to school on the Tuesday. We will attend lessons at Boggabilla Central School, stay the night in the Boggabilla Motel and then travel back home on the Wednesday.

If you wish to be involved there is an expectation that you will take a billet on the return visit which this year will be in term 4. Boggabilla students will not be visiting during the State of Origin as has been traditional but will try to experience Sydney in summer.

What's Up in the McDonald Senior Library?

STATE LIBRARY NEWS

We are already well into Term 2 with the Senior Library much in demand from students and various other demands from exams to staff meetings. At the beginning of the Term staff at Sydney Boys listened to an excellent and illuminating presentation by State Librarians on what resources are available to themselves and to students who are members. They may either attend and utilize resources at the library or access the myriad of online databases from outside the library and this is all for free. A fantastic service which our students in the Senior School can take advantage of!

Teachers will be encouraging students to extend their research by using these marvellous resources which can give students the edge in this highly competitive educational environment. Of course using such professional and authoritative sources is also the gateway to lifelong learning and prepares them for their studies after school where many of our students will be using such resources in their university studies.

All Year 10 students should be members of the State Library by the end of Week 4 and after this State Librarians will be taking each class for an introductory session outlining useful databases for their Senior studies up to HSC level, good search techniques and a general discussion of all the services that the State Library of NSW has to offer.

NEW BOOKS

Also newsworthy is that with exams being held in the Senior Library the librarians have had an opportunity to work on accessioning, cataloguing and processing many exciting and interesting new books purchased recently. These will be added to our New Resources link under Libraries at SBH so watch that space in the coming weeks.

SPINEOUT magazine – an exciting new magazine trial

For the next few weeks we will be trialling a new magazine. SpineOut is a literature and creative arts magazine for young readers from 12-18 years and offers a creative outlet for young writers, artists, songwriters etc to express their thoughts and ideas on books, film, art and music.

The SpineOut team also send out recently published young adult books (to keep) to those young writers interested in writing book reviews to be published in the magazine.

As well SpineOut has author interviews, book quizzes and many other fun and fascinating activities and information about anything and everything to do with creative arts and writing! So simply click on the on the logo here to go in and have a look!

<http://www.goodreadingmagazine.com.au/index.cfm?page=160> This link will also be added to our school website to enable all to enjoy and depending on interest we will consider subscribing for both libraries both Junior and Senior.

ANDREWS LIBRARY

FINISHED YOUR EXAMS? – HAVE A LOOK AT OUR NEW BOOKS – NEW FICTION AND POPULAR BOOKS SHELVES – ANDREWS LIBRARY

The new books our library purchased this year are now flowing out of our workroom . New resources are displayed on the Portal/Library and will be appearing on the Andrews Library corridor windows.

THE $50 BOOK VOUCHER WILL BE DRAWN AT THE END OF THIS TERM

Students are encouraged to read by being entered into a $50 book voucher draw which is current for the next term. Students have to have borrowed 10 books to be eligible for the draw.

SENIORS IN THE JUNIOR LIBRARY DUE TO EXAMS - whispering, food , bags, 1 to computers, total silence Quiet and Computer Areas

Overall while there has been 90 plus senior students in the Junior Library during exam time the boys have been reasonably quiet and industrious. On this special occasion the normal rules about talking in the Class area have to be modified to enable studious boys to work. Whispering only is allowed during this exam situation.

Seniors are reminded not to bring bags in to the Library as they are a trip hazard – there are good bag racks outside the Library with cameras monitoring them. Likewise food is not to be consumed in the Library.

The Quiet Area and the Computer Area are to be totally silent. There is only to be one to a computer in these times. If we do this everyone can study happily.

SBHS DEBATING

MIC Report

This week I'd like to promote the Junior Debating Club. Christopher Chiam and Arthur Chau have put considerable time and effort into organising this club and it is disappointing that so few Year 7s are attending the club. It runs on Friday lunch time and is an invaluable opportunity for students to get more practise at debating and gain some excellent tuition from our Senior Debaters. This term it will be GPS try outs and with so many experienced debaters in Year 7 and 8 it is going to be very competitive. If I was a Junior debater I would definitely be attending the Club to raise my chances of being selected for the GPS team.

Many Year 7 parents have expressed concern that their sons have not had the opportunity to debate in FED or Eastside. We make every effort to be inclusive and we offer opportunities for as many students to debate as we can, but there are simply too many Junior Debaters for everyone to get a chance. However, to give more students opportunities I have organised for two social debates this term:

SBHS v Meridan 3.30 – 5pm on 18th May

Newington v SBHS 6pm – 8pm.

If you would like to take part in these debates it is crucial that you speak to your coach as quickly as possible. We will give preference to students who haven't debated competitively, but also it is important that we get teams organised in the next week and so will give places out to boys who show initiative and come forward first.

The importance of being on the emailing system has become very apparent this week as I have had to request expressions of interest for a number of teams – including Year 9 and 10 PDC teams. If you aren't on the mailing list you do not get this information and therefore you miss out. YOU must sign up for the weekly teams email.

I would like to thank Ms Mack and Ms Munro for their extra assistance with accompanying students to Friday evening debates this year. They are doing this in their own spare time and I hope you boys express your gratitude to them.

A VERY IMPORTANT DIARY DATE :

Saturday 8th September 2012 is the Debating Dinner. There will be an expectation that GPS teams and prize winners come to this event, but it is also open to anyone who has taken part and enjoyed the debating experience.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to see your coaches debate each other.
More details will follow shortly.

Please write this date in your diaries and encourage your parents to come along as well.

SYDNEY HIGH SCHOOL CADET UNIT

ATA SUCCESS

Congratulations to
CORPORAL DOMINIC TRAN
CORPORAL NELSON TANG

on their success in achieving the Adventure Training Award following their assessment during the school holidays. The week long assessment was held in the Majura Army Training Area in the ACT.

The ATA tests cadets in navigation, field engineering, survival skills, physical and mental endurance, teamwork, initiative and leadership.

The successful cadets were presented with their ATA badges by the Deputy Chief of Army, Major General Angus Campbell, who, in congratulating the cadets said " Australia needs its young people during marvellous things in their life"

Well done, Dominic and Nelson.

SYDNEY ANZAC DAY MARCH

Once again the Unit supported the City of Sydney ANZAC DAY march. Our main effort was in providing a banner party for World War 2 veterans of the 2/1st Field Regiment Association. These veterans are now aged in their late eighties or early nineties – what a great effort for these men to take part in the long march. We are proud to support them.

We also supported the High Marching Band by carrying the School banner in front of the band.

Well done to Sergeants Vincent Ye, Nick Ooi and 2LT Anthony Ho in organising our support.

FAREWELL MESSAGE FROM MAJOR AAC RICHARD KNOWLES

This is likely to be my last contribution to High Notes as I am moving on to my next posting on the staff of HQ Australian Army Cadets

I came to Sydney High in a "caretaker" role following the death of Captain John Fittler in 2005. The plan was that my stay at High would be 6 to 12 months; and, now some 7 years later, I am finally moving to my next posting.

I have enjoyed my time at High. For me, highlights of my service at High include:

- Shooting tours to the United Kingdom
- Mounting two Governor-General's Guards
- The introduction of Formal Dining In nights
- The successes shown by High cadets in external courses and competitions.

My thanks to those on the School staff and in the High community who have helped me in my duties. I understand that not everyone at High sees the value of the cadet experience for our young men and sometimes I found the lack of cooperation galling, but we managed to achieve the mission regardless.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Officer Commanding Sydney High School Cadet Unit . My service here has provided me with the opportunity to work with so many outstanding young men who, I have no doubt, will go on to positions of leadership in our nation. I have seen them come into the cadet unit as eager young boys and then, see them off to university some 4 or 5 years later as confident young men ready to accept the responsibility of leadership; and that, after all, was my mission.

Be assured that I remain ready to assist High cadets in way possible in the future

Good bye and good luck

IN THE SWIM – HOT OFF THE PRESS FROM THE COMBINED INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS CARNIVAL

It was great to see the participation of these boys as many of the Senior Boys are in the middle of exams and actually travelled to and from school to sit for exams in between events. This involved a pretty fabulous effort from their parents as well.

Two of our Year 8 Swimmers also deserve a special mention as they went out to Homebush on their own and put in a long day timekeeping. They were James Tinker and Andrew Tracjevski. Huge thanks to James and Andrew who were not Swimming themselves on this occasion.

Big congratulations to Leonard Mah – 15 years - who has swum his way into All Schools in the 50 metres Freestyle which will be held next Monday. (Leonard had to be there early in t

Leonard came 3rd in this event. Good luck with All Schools.

All of the other CIS entrants faced quite stiff competition from seasoned and trained squad members but all performed very well. Their parents accompanied them at the pool for the most part and have been very supportive of the swimmers. We thank them also.

Darren Chien (15/16) 100m Breaststroke –came 5th overall - Came 1st in the 1st heat - the slower heat. Time 1.16.02

As you can see most of the boys' previous times had placed them in the slower heats but they performed well to actually climb into the top 8 competitors despite not being challenged by the faster swimmers in the best heat. This was a great performance from them.

Thanks to the Intermediate 50 m Freestyle Relay Swimmers Michael Sawang (15), Leonard Mah (15), Yu Peng Man (16)and Eugene Lee (16) who made a last minute dash out to represent the GPS Schools on Monday night after school after late notice last Friday. Thanks also to the parents who did the transportation.

SBHS RUGBY

High Rugby = High Spirit

From the Head Coach – Simon Kacimaiwai

Rugby is much more than a game, in many ways it is an analogy for life, requiring the same disciplined commitment for success not dissimilar to the personal and spiritual lessons provided by family and friends. Rugby is a game of challenges, often demanding of those who play it. It is a game of relationships that teaches players mateship, discipline and respect. It teaches the player on both sides the same lesson without favourites.

NSW Public Schools Drama Company presents 'The Grandfathers'

Late last year I was fortunate enough to join the State Drama Company for 2012, rehearsing to perform 'The Grandfathers', by Rory Mullarkey at the PACT Theatre in Erskineville in what is now a week away. Over the past few months, I have been able to develop my drama skills by rehearsing in a fully staged production of a brand new play, with our own production designers, lighting technicians and stage managers. 'The Grandfathers' is a war play, following the lives of 9 soldiers as they go through training and gradually become a part of the machine of their platoon. To say the least, it has been rewarding to work with such a group of like-minded people, and as a result, I have received much knowledge that I can adapt to my classwork in Drama. The opportunity that appeals the most though, is our tour to England scheduled for mid-June, where we will take part in theatre workshops in Stratford-upon-Avon with leading theatre companies, and hopefully perform the play at different schools and community theatres. We are taking video of our performance next week to send to the National Theatre to audition to perform 'The Grandfathers' at the National Theatre Connections Festival in London – and for our live performances they are sending over the manager of their Connections program to report on our show. I also now have opportunities to MC events at locations such as the Sydney Town Hall, the Opera House, and the Seymour Centre, and while in last year's Drama Company I was even asked to MC an art opening at the Art Gallery of NSW. I'm very grateful to have been given these opportunities, and would like to thank Ms Rohr and Dr Jaggar for their continuing support of my endeavours.
