Sorry Day Assembly

The Junior School held an Assembly for Sorry Day last Friday. Ms Powell organised the inaugural occasion with the aim of raising awareness of Sorry Day on May 26 and Reconciliation Week this week. Aunty Fay Carroll, a local Aboriginal elder and DEC Officer, talked about the Stolen Generation and the impact the policy continues to have on Aboriginal people. Khushaal Vyas spoke passionately about the need for empathy for victims of forced removal from their families. In my address I gave an historical context to the treatment of Aboriginal people by Anglo-Celtic Australian society in the 19th century

To commemorate National Reconciliation Week (May 17-June, 3) and in particular Sorry Day tomorrow, I want to use the occasion of this assembly to apologise to Aboriginal people generally and Kamilaroi people in particular for the events of a dark day in our history, June 10 1838. During the land grab by squatters in the 1830s aborigines were seen as threats to expansion of white settlement rather than as people with hereditary rights to the custodianship of the land. The prevailing attitude was that killing Aborigines was justifiable because they were threats to agrarian livelihood. Sadly, massacres of Aborigines were not uncommon. The Australia day Massacre of 1838 at Waterloo creek was triggered by the spearing of some cattle and the murder of two whites (supposedly by Aborigines). Between 25 and 100 Aborigines were killed by Major Nunn and his troopers who were sent to the district by Governor Snodgrass after complaints by squatters. Convicts and stockmen continued the slaughter after Nunn left.

Later that year, one of the convict stockmen at Myall creek station, Charles Kilmeister invited the Wirrayaraay group of the Kamilaroi tribe to come and camp at the station for their safety and protection from gangs of marauding stockmen. On June 10, a squatter, John Fleming, led a group of assigned convicts to Myall Creek in search of Aborigines. The Aborigines fled to the station huts, pleading for protection. Instead, they were handed over to the murderers who tied them up and led them away. The twenty-eight people who were subsequently slaughtered with swords were predominantly women, children and old men. The cruellest irony was that Kilmeister participated in the massacre.

The eleven convict perpetrators of the murders were brought to justice but Fleming, the leader and most culpable, was never arrested. In fact, he was involved in more slaughtering of innocents. At the first trial, all eleven men were found not guilty after the jury deliberated for only twenty minutes. Seven of the group were rearrested and charged with related offences. At the second trial they were all found guilty. All seven were executed on December 18, the only time in Australia's history that Europeans were hanged for the massacre of aborigines.

North of Bingara there is a memorial site at the scene of the massacre. It is a moving place to visit. The Myall Creek massacre was a terrible tragedy for many reasons. First, the Aborigines were betrayed and killed by their supposed protector. Second, none of the victims of this racially motivated murder spree was guilty of any wrongdoing against white settlers. Third, the victims died in vain. Despite the legal principle of equality of European and Aboriginal persons before the law, it took two trials to convict the accused and the behaviour of white settlers towards aborigines did not change, the tactics altered. Perpetrators of massacres entered into pacts of silence to nullify prosecution attempts to find evidence. It was rumoured that poisoning of Aborigines was preferred as a "safe practice".

In the 21st century we would be accusing such people as criminals against humanity. Australians have a case to answer for attempted genocide in the 19th century. The Wirrayaraay people in northern NSW were in 1838 to the squatters what in 1938 Germany Jewish people were to the SS, non-citizens even sub-humans, who could be killed with impunity.

On Sorry Day we should reflect on how long racist domination and ill treatment of Aborigines has continued in Australia and resolve to treat

Aborigines as equal citizens in our multicultural society. For Sorry Day I want to say 'sorry' for what was done at Myall creek and elsewhere in NSW in the 19th century by white society.

Sir Roden and Lady Cutler Charity Golf Day

On 17th May 2012, Sydney High entered a team to participate in the Sir Roden and Lady Cutler Foundation charity golf day consisting of Mr Bigelow, Mr Kay, Chris Oei and myself. The weather was initially too cold but it turned out to be a wonderful day for golf with the sun shining over the prestigious Concord Golf Course. All of us had our fair share of good and bad shots but Mr Kay, as usual, led our team to victory winning the scratch event for the day. It was also great to hear Kevin Sheedy's captivating speeches of his coaching and playing experiences in AFL. All in all, it was great to see so many people out there on Concord Golf Course supporting the charity and I hope we can continue to participate next year.

MIC Report

I have been very proud of all the debaters who have taken part in the FED and Eastside Competitions. I have had the pleasure of watching every Year group debate over the last two months and I am very impressed with the standard reached by everyone. Unlike the other schools, we rotate the members of our teams and this means as many of you get an opportunity to publicly debate as possible - which is fantastic. However, it also means that we don't have the ability to build strong teams who develop a sense of how to work together and this limits the chance of our success in such competitions. This is particularly true in the Junior levels of the competition where we have so many keen debaters. Therefore in many ways we are disadvantaged in the FED and Eastside competitions.

Therefore to see our Year 8 debaters get through to the FED finals is extremely pleasing. For all you boys who debated as part of FED you should be very proud of your contribution to that achievement. The team that won the Semis have been asked to go on to the Finals at Knox on Friday, but Eli is going to be representing the school at Armidale. Eli spoke, as third speaker, with a maturity beyond his years on Friday and summarised both team's cases, whilst pointing out the "many glaring flaws" in the opposing team's case extremely clearly and concisely. The last time I saw the Year 8 boys speak was last year and their development as debaters during that time is wonderful to observe. It is testament to the hard work being put in by their coordinator Justin who has worked hard to organise the quiz and lesson plans each week and the other members of the Year 8 coaching team: Chris, Declan and Mitchell and also to the determination of the boys themselves. Very well done and good luck on Friday!

I took the Year 11 PDC team for two rounds of PDC on Tuesday – both against Fort Street. They won both debates and have now won their zone and will begin the inter-zone knock out soon. Well done Agnish, Khushaal, Connor and Wilber. Meanwhile Year 12 won their most recent PDC debate against Moorefield Girls.

Over the weekend some of our Years 11 and 12 debaters took part in trials for the NSW State Debating Team. Five of the twenty five asked to come back for a second round of trials are SBHS students – quite an achievement. Good luck to Christopher, Robert, Julian, Nicky and Connor.

As you can see this is a very busy time for debaters – it is important for you to receive the emails and read them carefully each week.

Debating Prefect Report

At last week's FED semi-finals at Trinity, our Years 10 and 11 teams were unlucky to lose in a close debate against very good teams. However, by all reports they did themselves and the school proud and should be pleased with their achievements. However, our Year 8 team made it through to the finals, a fantastic effort. Good luck to the team of James Goh, Liam Jepson, Masrur Joarder and Thomas Shortridge! The next focus will be the GPS season starting in term 3, and with trials starting for most Years in the next few weeks we're nearly at the most important part of the season. Hopefully we can improve on last year's GPS results (which by no means were poor, especially for seniors) and judging by our results in Eastside and FED that is definitely possible!

SPEAKER: ANNA LIU THE CHALLENGES FACING THE MIGRANT PARENT IN THE SCHOOL ENVIRONMENT

It is our pleasure to introduce Anna Liu as this year's joint P&C meeting guest speaker. Anna is a social worker who runs the Chinese Family Education

Project in Mandarin for Family Services in the St George area, as well as being a Director of PARENTCALM and mother of two school age children.

Anna speaks from both a professional and personal viewpoint about the challenges facing migrant parents in their relationship with the education system, including the limitations imposed by the language barrier; the effect of differing cultural expectations; and how these challenges impact on the children involved.

Anna offers practical advice for all parents on how to improve the wellbeing of our daughters and sons in an environment where high academic performance is both encouraged and expected, at the same time as the journey through puberty is being negotiated. Parents are provided with an understanding of the physical and emotional needs of teenagers along with tips on recognising the signs of stress and strategies for addressing it.

We look forward to seeing you on the night. A Q&A session will be held afterwards and a light supper will be provided. Parking will be available via the Cleveland Street and Anzac parade entrances.

SHS Cross Country

This year's Zone Cross Country Carnival held in Centennial Park was a great success for High. With the majority of the top 10 runners from the School Cross Country Carnival attending, we had a larger turnout of runners this year, with runners from all age groups racing for High from the 12yrs races through to the 17yrs and Opens, with everyone taking on the challenging course through dirt paths, sand, and bushes, before finally hitting the pavement again in each lap, and pushing themselves to make the distance, whether it be 3kms for the 12 and 13 years races, 4kms for the 15s and 16s, or 6km for the 17s and Opens, with the aim of finishing in the top 10 so as to be selected to move onto the Regional Cross Country Carnival.

Starting with the 12 years races and moving upwards, High got off to a great start, with many of our junior runners pushing hard and grabbing places in the top ten, despite it being their first ever Zone Carnival for some of them, with most, if not all, of our runners qualifying for the regionals.

As the day wore on, and the weather started to become more windy and cold, High really started to dominate the placings. In the 15yrs race, all six of the runners from High made the top ten places, a fantastic achievement from them! Brendan Hancox scored a high 2nd place, followed by Wesley Beare in 3rd place, Tushaar Garg in 4th place, Luke Hoad in 5th place, Adilmorad Nadir in 6th place, and Chris Chen in 9th place.

As the 16s race approached, the weather took a turn for the worse, and it started to rain moderately. Despite this, the race carried on, with High still dominating, with Anton Brokman winning the race for High with 1st place, followed by Ned Anson in 3rd, myself in 4th place, Lokesh Sharma in 7th place, Han Mai coming 9th, and Kenneth Liu making the regionals in 10th place, once again, all runners from High qualifying again!

By the time the 17s and Opens races had started, the rain had increased and was pouring down heavily, with the runners now having to do 6kms for their race. Adam Booth gained a strong lead and finished in 1st place for the Opens, followed by Jonathan Clements 1st in the 17s, followed by Wilber Koslowski and Vincent Ye.

Overall, High achieved spectacular results that day, with the runners pushing hard, despite the weather, supporting each other and cheering them on as they passed by. The large number of High boys finishing in the top ten and qualifying for the Regional Carnival this year is most impressive. A great effort by all of you this year, and I look forward to seeing you compete in the Regionals!
