From the Principal End of Term 1

As we draw to the end of a very eventful term one, I extend my thanks to all staff, parents, Old Boys and volunteers who have contributed so much to our school community. We exist to provide educative experiences for our boys and opportunities to serve for our staff. These last few weeks have tested us as a community and I believe everyone has acted professionally, in good faith and with grace and dignity. For Evan Higgins: [Life] "dies not, but endures with pain, / and slowly forms the firmer mind / Treasuring the look it cannot find / the words that are not heard again."(Alfred Lord Tennyson – In Memoriam A.H.H). Have a restful break.

High Talent

Congratulations to Stephen Young (12R) on his selection into the NSW All Schools team to compete for the Pizzey Cup. This is a high honour for a tennis player at schoolboy level. Aidin Karahasan (SHS-2016) gained the Public Education Foundation Awards for NSW Higher School Certificate Excellence – an impressive honour.

Caught Doing the Right Thing!

I received this email from a commuter on Wednesday: "I never take it upon myself to contact a school to tell them about their students but one in particular stood out. This morning on my commute, a young man in shorts with a red backpack and a Union Jack flag umbrella restored my opinion in schoolaged boys. This young man did not sit down at any part of the journey even though I had a spare seat next to me for 15 minutes. When other young men greeted him, their conversation was neither rowdy nor impolite and they were very well-mannered. Thank you for allowing these men as part of your school, they are doing a fine job in representing it". Well done!

Anzac Day Assembly 2017

We held our assembly on Friday April 7 this year, as close as we could get to 25 April due to the intervening weeks being school holidays. My speech to the assembly is reprinted below:

Distinguished guests: Bill Harrigan (Bondi-Waverley RSL), Ross Whittle (Maroubra RSL), and Les Haggett, President of the National Servicemen's Association; Old Boys, Commander Andrew Dale, Commander Viv Littlewood, Alf. Tremain; staff and students, welcome to our Anzac Day Assembly. This is our last opportunity before 25 April to commemorate our important national day. On this special occasion, we remember the sacrifice of our soldiers in World War 1, particularly in the Gallipoli campaign. It is also most appropriate to thank for their service the 3300 ADF personnel currently deployed overseas. Our contribution to the Afghanistan and Middle East maritime security force, includes 1550 personnel involved in Operation Slipper, while 830 people are deployed more broadly in the area. Border protection involves 400 service personnel in Operation Resolute, while 400 more serve as peace keepers in East Timor. Australia continues to act in support of countries in our region who want peace. We have taken upon ourselves, as a middle power, to assist our Allies in their campaigns abroad and have been tasked to keep the peace in our immediate Pacific region.

If you had been in the British Army in April 1917 you would have been preparing for the Battle of Arras, due to commence on April 9. The Canadians were to win a famous victory on Vimy Ridge during this battle. Having exhaustively recounted WW1 battles and missteps over the years at this assembly, I thought today to look at the contribution of one man in this formative period of our national history. A.B. 'Banjo' Paterson was born on a property near Orange in 1864. He was educated by a governess, then at a bush school in Binalong and from 1874, at Sydney Grammar School. He was admitted as a solicitor in 1886. His first poetry appeared in The Bulletin in 1885. He worked as a war correspondent during the Boer War and The Boxer Rebellion. In 1908 he moved to a property near Yass. He was commissioned in the AIF in October 1915 and fought in France, where he was wounded. He then served in Cairo. He rose to the rank of Major and was repatriated in 1919. His Collected Verse was first published in 1921

In his poetry, 'Banjo' Paterson romanticised life in the bush, representing the bushman as a tough, independent, laconic and heroic underdog. His popularity as a balladeer was such that Angus & Robertson published Paterson's poems in pocket editions for 'men in the trenches' in 1917, designed to fit in the tunic pockets of the Anzacs. The Anzacs read and recited poems such as Mulga Bill's Bicycle or The Man From Snowy River as an antidote to the horror of life in the trenches and to sustain their spirits with stories from home. Through the widespread distribution and reading of his poetry in the army, Paterson had a strong influence on the self-image of the Australian soldier or "digger". The young nation, Australia, saw itself as an underdog, struggling for recognition from Britain and France. There was a characteristic hopeful spirit in the armed forces that carried men through four long years of war, despite the horrors they faced. It was poets like Paterson and CJ Dennis, with his The Songs of a Sentimental Bloke, who symbolised the character of our men in World War 1. It is commonplace to personify a country as a woman, typically a mother and then to apostrophise the figure. In his poem "Song of Australia" Paterson uses this device in a section of the poem called "Song of the Australians in Action". His lines don't always scan and his rhyming is somewhat contrived, but he rises to the occasion in a couple of lines and captures the sentiment of those who served – the romantic volunteers.

For the honour of Australia, our Mother, Side by side with our kin from over sea, We have fought and we have tested one another, And enrolled among the brotherhood are we. There was never post of danger but we sought it In the fighting, through the fire, and through the flood There was never prize so costly but we bought it, Though we paid for its purchase with our blood.

Was there any road too rough for us to travel? Was there any path too far for us to tread? You can track us by the blood drops on the gravel, On the roads that we milestoned with our dead!

And for you, O our young and anxious mother, O'er your great gains keeping watch and ward, Neither fearing nor despising any other, We will hold your possessions with the sword.

If you remember one thing about World War 1 and the Anzacs who fought in it, it should be that they gave their innocence for their country. Their optimistic patriotism was eventually crushed by artillery, machine gun fire, wanton human sacrifice, disease and leadership blunders. Patriotism was never really expressed again in such terms as those used by Paterson and Englishman Rupert Brooke. World War 1 beat that sentiment out of our young men.

This Anzac Day, as you watch our veterans marching, witness our marching band performing, or observe the faces of the flagwaving onlookers, spare a thought for those true believers who died with the vision of a proud, optimistic and free Australia in their minds.

Meet the Prefect Intern

"Don't worry about the failures, worry about the chances you miss when you don't even try."

Having spent the last five years at High, the single most important thing I've learnt is to grasp all the opportunities that comes your way in life because as cliché as it sounds, it's the one aspect of High that separates us from other schools. The High culture aims to produce intelligent, respectable and caring young men through an environment where we are able to safely trial new experiences despite the errors we make (except when dealing with the Maths department).

Now, as a senior in my last year at High, I've reflected upon my experiences as I watch the new Year 7's scamper along in the hallways. The single most difficult decision I've had to make was choosing between my passion for chess and debating as they were and continue to be mutually exclusive. Although I've had many regrets in not pursuing some aspects at High, I will never regret my decision to join the debating program as it continues to be one of the most successful programs at High. The comradery on a Friday evening, travelling, finding food and just talking to each other is an unparalleled experience that ends generally in the glory of victory experienced together as a team. This level of friendship and support for each other continue to excite me even after 5 years and having been given the prestigious position as a Prefect, I hope to be able to forge new friendships within the High community and encourage you all to approach me and immerse yourself within the "High" culture because it truly is incomparable.

The second day was the teams event with the "SBHS legends" finishing 3rd in the CHS category, followed by "SBHS legends 2.0" finishing 7th. The intermediate team, "High Team", finished 36th overall and 7th in the CHS category. For the "High Team" Ike Matsuoka completed the 600m swim leg in an amazing 8m 24s to finish 20th overall and 4th in CHS, Jarrod Khaw rode a solid 15k bike leg in 30m 48s to finish 11th in CHS, and a strong final 4km run by Jonathon Tran in 15m 58s saw him finish 10th in CHS.

Congratulations to all our champion triathletes. It was a great experience for all our competitors and another successful chapter in High's rich sporting history.

For 1st and 2nd XI GPS points ladder please go to: http://aagps.nsw.edu.au/winter-sports/football/

We finally managed to get some fixtures in against Cranbrook and it was a great hit-out for our boys. The day started well with the 3rd and 4th XI notching up wins. Although the 1st and 2nd XI teams went down they showed plenty of encouraging signs from a very young and small squad.

2nd XI Matthew O'Sullivan, scoring against Cranbrook

I would like to make special mention of the U13s parent support. Even though it was only internal trials there seemed to be a great turn out. The boys perform better when there is a cheer squad behind them.

Don't forget the football camp these holidays. If you are unable to attend please email Mr Tesoriero.

Thank you and have a fun and safe holiday break. Upon return we go straight into training on Wednesday 26 April. Geoff Tesoriero

Team of the Week 1st XV

Leading up to the match against St Andrews, preparation had been tough as the Year 12s juggled their exams with training while key players within the team were absent due to National's Rowing. This led to rearrangement to positions with Shane Wei making his return back at number 9 and Elliot having to step up to number 10. Despite the absence and confusion, this allowed for the new additions of Jun Kurosawa, Louis Saunders, Lachlan Golf, Ryan Zheng and Sidney Pham all stepping up from second grade and made their respective mark on the 1st XV team. Our start to the game was impeccable, with immediate momentum right from the kick-off. With an easy line-break from Ethan May, we were quick to pressure St Andrew's 22. Unlike many games in the past, where we would be dominating physically, today, we were held back by the unfamiliarity to new players in the team and also an unfortunate injury to a key player Anthony Xiao, which did not help our cause. The result being that we let in two tries before half time. Minutes later we quickly responded through a cascading move resulting in a try through our forward pack. The first half ended at 14-5 St Andrews way.

Going into the second half, we attacked relentlessly upon applying our physical presence over the ball. With a well chased kick and precise hunting of the ball from the forwards, a turnover ensued and through simple catch and pass, Ethan May was able to cross over the line and score on the left side, scoring a 30 second try from kick off. Following this, the forwards attacked with a revived effort as massive runs from Connor Fisher and Chris Chang pushed the opposition's defence back that resulted in a try for second grader Lachie Golf. taking us ahead after 40 minutes of play. However, soon after, St Andrew's number 9 slipped through our defence and scored a try with them taking the lead 21-15 with 3 minutes left to play. With urgency now flowing throughout the team, an immediate kick off from Shane saw a relentless chase from the forwards. With good cover defence, we managed to turn over the ball and forcefully attacked with yet again cascading runs from the forwards, leading up to a try on the left wing by Daniel Hamilton. Unfortunately, we were unable to convert the goal leading to a 20-21 loss against a much improved St Andrew's side from last year. As always this was yet another learning curve but also a demonstration of our ability showing high hopes this season.

Nigel Zhang (12T)

Highlights

This Saturday we saw a number of our boys referee their very first rugby game. They did a marvellous job which we are very proud of the way they stepped up and performed their duties. Their contribution to the game in this manner is a credit to themselves as they help out the schools involved but more particular as they contribute enormously to their own development into becoming well rounded and successful young men. Well done gentlemen you all did a marvellous job!
