

From the Principal

High Talent

Congratulations to our opens Basketball team who have again qualified for the last eight in the CHS Knockout competition. The boys will fight out the quarter finals in Terrigal later in the year. Congratulations to Nathan Trinh (11R), who will be performing with the Sydney Youth Orchestra at an ABC concert in late June. Stephen Young (12R) was an integral member of the New South Wales Pizzey Cup tennis team which won the National Schools Teams event. Our Age Champions from the School Athletics carnival were: Joshua Suto (12 years), Rowan Tan (13 years), Felix Cao (14 years), Sudaraka Pieris (15 years), Andrew Chang (16 years), Open was a tie David Chen and Nicholas Katsilis.

Well done and congratulations to all boys and to the carnival organiser Kurt Rich and Wayne Baldock. James Siu (11M) asserted his dominance in the sabre by winning gold at the Individual Schools Championships last weekend. Good job, James!

Interpreting Year 10 Reports

Boys in Year 10 have had their reports handed out after consultation with the Principal. Parents should be aware that there are changes to the way the rank order is calculated in Year 10. HDs (6 points) and credits (3 points) etc...are no longer added together to form the scores on which the rank order is based. We use individual marks supplied by teachers. We calculate ATAR equivalent scores for those marks based on twelve units (six subjects). PE is not included in the calculations as it is a practical course only in Year 10. PASS elective scores are counted. Rank order variations can be large between Years 9 and 10 for these and other reasons. For example, boys take on additional electives which do not have to include history or geography. Sixty-five boys are attempting stage 6 courses which are assessed on stage 6 criteria. Some stage 5 electives like Commerce, robotics and film making are infused with stage 6 concepts and content. The MOOCS elective can only be calculated as the average of the rest of the scores because it is a mastery-based elective. Science is delivered in a series of modules – chemistry, biology and physics. Some boys are much more engaged with one science module rather than another. Regrettably, some boys switch off in subjects they are not planning to pursue in Year 11. Please bear in mind the possible impacts of these changed contexts when discussing the report with your son. Quiz him about his three electives and how he is engaging with them.

Sorry Day Assembly

Mr Mark Scott, Secretary of the Department of Education, opened the Na Ngarra gallery in McDonald Wing. My speech to the assembly is reprinted below.

Distinguished guests, Mark Scott, Secretary of the Department of Education, Rod Megahey, relieving Executive Director Ultimo Operations Directorate, Geoff Andrews, Chairman of the Sydney High School Foundation, Paul Almond, President of the Old Boys Union, contributing artists and consultants, staff and students, welcome to our Sorry Day Assembly and launch of the Na Ngarra indigenous art collection.

Next week it will be 25 years since the High Court upheld the principle of native title, validated by a traditional connection to tribal land. The Mabo decision was a legal way of recognising the fact of dispossession of indigenous people. In December of 1992, Paul Keating's Redfern Speech gave political recognition to the genesis of the problem being non-aboriginal Australians who "took the traditional lands and smashed the traditional way of life." Non-aboriginal Australians showed their ignorance and prejudice in their treatment of indigenous people. As human beings we failed "to imagine these things being done to us". By December 1993 a Commonwealth Native Title Tribunal was established under the Native Title Act to confront dispossession and find a way to return to indigenous people land that had always been theirs.

A social justice spin-off from this legislation was a public exposure of the policy of assimilation and the forced removal of children from their families. The report of the subsequent judicial inquiry was handed down in 1997. 'Bringing them home' accused white society of gross violations of the human rights of indigenous people. The policy amounted to attempted genocide in practice – communities and cultures were the targets. A year after this report was tabled, May 26 1998 the first National Sorry Day was held. It has been held annually ever since.

Since that celebration small steps have been taken on the path to reconciliation. There has evolved a social conscience consensus regarding indigenous land title rights. The pace of that journey was quickened by Kevin Rudd's apology speech to parliament on February 13, 2008. He apologised on behalf of the Australian Government for a long list of specific acts of mistreatment. The apology was offered as part of a process of healing for our nation. Thus, the original foundation of the celebration of Sorry Day last Friday, was the official recognition of the wrong done to indigenous people. The occasion asks us to share the steps towards healing for the stolen generations, so many of whom live among us in contemporary Australian society. At High, we have been celebrating a shift in our national disposition towards reconciliation since 2012, when we believed the National Day deserved a special assembly to highlight its significance.

After saying sorry, the next step is to be sorry – to show in some way contrition and a positive action of restoration. It is time to honour the unrecognised cultural achievement of indigenous Australians.

Given that indigenous art is the permanent thread establishing their continuous culture for around 40,000 years, it seemed appropriate to us to connect aboriginal art to our place.

Back in 1947, the inaugural Ethel Killip Memorial Prize was presented to the Dux of 4th Year. The prize was established by the P & C Ladies Auxiliary to commemorate the work done by the Principal's wife in establishing that committee. The interest on an investment of 600 pounds would fund a prize for 15 years. Thereafter, the capital was to be used for the benefit of the school (as decided by the Principal, Deputy Principal and President of the P & C).

In 1962, the capital of the fund became available and a decision was made to purchase artworks for the new library (now called the K.J. Andrews Library) within the Killip Wing (then under construction). The first idea was to buy reproductions, but a parent with two sons at High, Mrs Kampfner, argued that purchasing original artworks would be a better use of the capital. Mrs Kampfner was better known as Judy Cassab, a renowned artist. She chose and purchased nine original artworks on behalf of the school and donated a painting of her own. They hung in the library for many years. A tribute to Judy Cassab herself can be seen today in the collection of her works displayed in McDonald Wing, most of which were kindly donated to the school by her family after her passing in 2015.

During my time as Principal, the library became an unsuitable place for displaying the collection as the wall spaces were required for book shelving to house a growing collection. Some paintings were in storage. To secure and preserve the collection, it was relocated to the Boardroom. Once the works were catalogued and evaluated by an art dealer, it was found that several were deteriorating and in need of conservation. A decision was taken to sell three artworks. The proceeds from the sale resulted in a fund of $80,000 that became the Ethel Killip Memorial Trust on June 29, 2006. Since then the Sydney High School Foundation has been the Trustee of the Fund, which grew to more than $115,000. The terms of the Trust Deed allowed for the purchase of artworks should the value of the fund exceed $100k.

With the national curriculum having an emphasis on indigenous art, it was decided to begin an indigenous art collection at our school. We began with a Bancroft given to the school in 2002. A sub-committee of the SHS Foundation was tasked with sourcing indigenous artworks that would support the study of art in the national curriculum. A number of purchases were made and multiple works given to us on loan by Simon Chan, parent of an Old Boy. The gallery of artworks to be officially opened today is called Na Ngara – 'listen, think and learn'. Aboriginal art was used as a frame for cultural narratives that have endured over the millennia. We have frames to begin conversations and inspire reflections about indigenous struggles for equality. I commend the gallery to you.

Meet the Prefect-Intern

As the curtains of my spectacular are slowly drawing to a close, I have only become more affirmed in my conviction - I love Sydney Boys High school. Ever since my admission here, this place has provided me endless High-quality resources for the cultivation of my academic, co-curricular and leadership paths. If I could list all the different opportunities High has provided me, you would probably skip reading this post and continue meme hunting on Facebook, so I'll only give a small snippet: cultural exchanges, debating, taking leadership initiatives, and of course, Saturday Sport coupled with its comprehensive training regime.

What I really want to focus on is what I think has been the most instrumental part of growing up at Sydney Boys – pride. If you ask little Wanyu: “Do you have pride in your school?”, my response would’ve been a faint and uncertain “Yes?”. Yet, year by year, as exams have come and gone, and the flowers of our old jacaranda tree blossom and wither, my answer has only become exponentially more confident, tending towards infinity – “YES!”. By battling all the trials and tribulations of balancing the extremely diverse lifestyle encouraged at High, the school has broadened my horizons and helped me reach heights I never thought possible. Despite the hardships of the journey, I have gained new skills, perspectives and the flames of inextinguishable friendships which will last a lifetime. I now take unprecedented pride in myself, my peers and my school to be able to achieve our maximum potential.

However, that isn't to say I don't appreciate the noble sacrifices made by teachers, coaches, and the school to make all of this a reality. In that sense, there is also a duty I find within myself to make proud those who have guided me along my path.

Thus, as a Prefect of Sydney High, I endeavour to capture this truly magical sense of pride and share it with all the boys. " Have pride and all is possible."

STAND TALL: STAND FOR ALL.

LOVE YOUR LIBRARY - FROM THE JUNIOR LIBRARY NEW BOOKS – PAPER BASED BOOKS

While I am delighted by our boys' take up of the new thing libraries have to offer – e books - I am going to give a plug for our paper based book collection.

Currently our libraries are more successful at obtaining new releases – the freshest and most up to date children's literature on offer – in paper format. This, I suspect, is because traditional publishers are resisting turning over their best books to e book suppliers. At present I need two e book suppliers to keep our 1500 book e collection reasonably new and vibrant. I can't purchase enough new releases from just one supplier.

Our paper book fiction collection is, by contrast, much larger than our e book collection - at approximately 4000 books. Our two libraries purchase 3,825 books per year. Our librarians concentrate on the deliberate purchase of junior, mid school and senior young adult literature specifically aimed at boys' interests. Our new bookstands are really worth a look and then a borrow. They will contain the newest books the book industry has on offer for young adult boys.

Our new paper books will hit the new book display stands over the next term. Library staff are processing our newest purchases right now. Our Junior Library has concentrated on new releases and on filling the gaps in our series. Thanks to our library monitors who used good online research techniques to find out what was missing from our most popular series. Our paper-based books are probably the best reading resources our school provides - do look and borrow from our new fiction display stands.

Some lovely new books being processed at the moment and soon to be available for you are:

Booking interviews with your son's teachers

This year we will again use a web based electronic scheduling system for arranging interviews. This produces better results for all participants, especially more compact time schedules for both parents and teachers. The system works as follows –

- On Tuesday 30 May all parents of boys in Years 9 and 12 were sent by email details of the scheduling system and a unique code to be entered at www.edval.com.au/book.
- On Wednesday 14 June all parents of boys in Year 7 and 11 were sent by email details of the scheduling system and a unique code to be entered at www.edval.com.au/book.
- On Tuesday 20 June all parents of boys in Years 8 and 10 will be sent by email details of the scheduling system and a unique code to be entered at www.edval.com.au/book.
- This email was/will be sent to the address currently held by the school. If you have not received this email by the following day or, if your email address has changed from what had been previously advised to the school, you should notify the school at ptnight@sbhs.nsw.edu.au advising of this. Please indicate your son's name and roll class or date of birth so that the information can be forwarded to you.
- On the Edval website you will see your son's teachers listed and you will be able to select those with whom you require an interview. (If you hover over a teacher's name, the subject involved will be shown.) At the same time you can indicate your availability between 3:00 pm and 7:00 pm.
- Once the majority of parents have requested interviews, the overall schedule will be generated by the school and your individual schedule should be available for you to download and print from two days before the interviews.
- Periods will be shortened on the days of the interviews. Boys from all Years will be dismissed from class at 2:35pm each day. School Special buses will run to normal schedules and there will be supervision available in the Junior Quad of boys waiting for these buses.
- Interviews should not exceed five minutes' duration. If there is insufficient time, a further appointment may be made for a later date, or contact by telephone arranged.

Why should students and parents go?

The leap from high school to University is a daunting rite of passage.

You're going from mandated class attendance every week day, to being held accountable for your own learning.

How can you make sure this transition runs smoothly and successfully?

How do you keep up with the workload?

What's the best way to make the most out of Uni?

Hear from our experienced Old Boy guest speakers!

You are cordially invited to attend the annual Joint SGHS and SBHS P&C Meeting:

- Date: Thursday 22nd June, 2017
- Venue: Campbell Hall, Sydney Girls High School
- Time: 7:30pm - 9pm (tea and coffee will be served from 7:00pm)
- SGHS P&C Business Meeting will commence at 6pm in the Staff Common Room.

We are delighted that Dr Michael Spence AC, Vice-Chancellor and Principal of University of Sydney, will be our featured guest speaker on the topic, "Reimagining the Sydney Undergraduate Experience". Dr Spence will discuss how changes at the undergraduate level in one of our leading universities will impact on your sons and daughters. There will also be opportunities to ask the Vice-Chancellor questions about undergraduate education.

As we are anticipating a large number of parents to be attending from both schools, we ask that you please register your attendance as soon as possible and no later than Tuesday 20 June 2017 to assist us with event planning: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/2017-joint-sghs-and-sbhs-pc-meeting-tickets-34504461774>.

Boggabilla Cultural Exchange 2017

Dear Parents,
The Boggabilla Cultural program is one of the most special opportunities in which our boys are able to participate.

In Week 9 Term 2 the students from Boggabilla Central School will be coming to Sydney for their annual exchange and we need a number of billets for these students. If you are able to host students for the two nights (Tuesday 20 and Wed 21 June) could you please let me know? We try to billet in twos where possible to alleviate anxiety for the students.

Boys who are billeting these students will also be involved in some of the activities held with them over the course of their exchange and will be guaranteed a spot when we visit them.

If you are able to billet students and are interested in your son participating in this exchange please email me on cottonm@sbhs.nsw.edu.au or alternatively get your son to speak to me ASAP.

I would like to lock down the spots quickly.

Many thanks
Matt Cotton

Letters Re Student Absence/Late Arrival/Early Leave

When your son returns to school from being absent he is required to provide a letter of explanation signed by a parent or guardian.

If your son is going to be late for school a note is also required. Alternatively, you may contact the school by phone on 9662 9300 and dial "1" for the absentee line.

If your son has an early leave note he is required to have his note signed by either Mr Dowdell, Ms Powell or Mr Prorellis before 9:00 am and handed in to the Main Office immediately after. Each letter should be signed by a parent or guardian with the name, date and roll class of your son printed clearly. Your son needs to pick up a leave pass from the Main Office before he leaves the school.

MIC of Football Report

For 1st and 2nd XI GPS points ladder please go to:
<http://aagps.nsw.edu.au/winter-sports/football/>

The 2017 GPS Football Competition has officially commenced against Shore. For all the new families, each team plays off for the Dolan Cup. There is a points system and the team with the most points at the end of the season walks away with the Dolan Cup. This is a hard fought trophy that many teams fight to win. So good luck!!

It was great to see the 13Fs who had an internal match deciding to play a Father v Sons game. It created a great vibe and you could see all the families had a great time.

One of the most enjoyable games I watched was the final match of the day, the 15Fs. They were down 1-4 with 20 minutes to go. Then the boys lifted and started to dominate the match and came back to level the scores at 4-4. They had an opportunity to win after being awarded a penalty shot in the dying minutes, but unfortunately the keeper made a great save, ending the game in an entertaining draw.

I would like to thank the Football Committee, who generously donated a scaffolding and scoreboard for our camera guy to get a great view of the match. Thank you!!

The new scoreboard and camera stand

Good luck and keep working hard and the results will come.

MOM:

Daniel Hamilton for his almost hat-trick

Team of the Week 1st XV

Last Saturday saw a very successful week of High Rugby with many of the teams winning their games. This was especially seen in the opens rugby side which saw our dominant 2nd XV cruise to a close yet comfortable victory over Shore. We also saw victories in the 15's and 16B's. The 1st XV too saw a very well deserved victory. After being handed over the reins after a day's long of victory's from High, it was the finally the chance for first grade to show our skills and kick start the GPS season with a much needed win.

The week of preparation leading up to Shore has been the highest intensity of training we had committed to in many weeks. Understanding Shore's potency in defence and attack, we knew a monumental effort was required to come out on top. The conditions at McKay was perfect during this 11am clash against Shore. For the first time in many weeks, we had a full-strength team, with many vital players returning for the second confrontation against Shore that revitalised our spirit as a team, and was finally a chance to show our full potential as a strong attacking side.

Kicking off, the game was at an equal with neither side giving way and an audience had gathered to watch, due to the earlier time of the game. With both sides arm-wrestling for ground, the game was at a deadlock, missing our first penalty kick and unfortunately a minute later, a slight error from the High Side that resulted in Shore intercepting and scoring the first try. Unfazed, we returned at full force. With strong carries from the forwards especially of the likes of Nirvan Chand and Ethan May, we muscled our way towards the Shore try line, before a line breaking run saw Archie our serving captain crash over the line. It was a welcome change to hear and see a large array of high boys and supporters celebrating on the sideline, driving our work effort and determination to new heights. We entered the sheds down 7-5, the game nowhere close to being over.

It's safe to say Sydney High is a second half side. Entering the second half, it was clear the 1st XV team as a whole, was completely reenergised and filled with a new sense of determination. As a total of our efforts, it was believed Shore had a total of 3 minutes with ball at hand, as our strong and constricting defence pressured Shore attacking patterns, while our effective ball possession, prevented Shore from ever regathering themselves in the game. The second half was dominant to say the least. With Ahad somehow unleashing the beast, his carries like many of the other forwards made huge gains in metres. This was complimented well with 3 more tries, one for replacement winger Sidney Pham who's first touch resulted in a scorching meat pie after great ball skills from the backs and 2 for MOM Daniel Hamilton, who crashed the ball over twice. This game ultimately saw a huge improvement to our trial season and really brought back some hope for the 1st XV side. With vast improvements from our backs, our centre pairing of Anthony Xiao and Sam Merrick is a strong and effective combo that will hopefully last us the season. There were errors within the game that we will need to fix where Shore was able to score a try during that second half and unfortunately a horrible "not entering the gate" cleanout from myself. However we couldn't really ask for a better start to the season and hopefully our efforts are carried through for the rest of the season.

Thanks

A big thank you to our referees who did a great job and also to the parents who helped out in the canteen and setup and pack down. M. Cotton
