

From the Principal Room 802 Upgrade

Boys taking lesson in computer skills, software and robotics, have a refurbished classroom in which to learn. Benches and access points have been installed around the room to allow better utilisation of space for BYOD devices, desktops and keyboards. There is now a clear space in the room for remotely operated machines to navigate pathways, obstacles and mazes. The data cabling has also been renewed, allowing faster and more reliable network access.

Interpreting Year 7 Reports

Year 7 boys received their reports this week. Parents need to know that with scores for grades – HD (6), D (5), Credit (3) PM (2) and P (1) – boys are expected to score thirty points or 10 credits equivalent, in order to reach the school standard. Proficiency levels for future oriented learning skills, such as problem solving and evaluating, are also reported. Parents will be able to trace the growth of their son in the five reported skills as he progresses through the junior school. We understand that boys transitioning into Year 7 face many adjustment challenges. The top group of boys are acknowledged on the Academic Achievement List. Unless special circumstances preclude it, letters are sent to the parents of the boys in the Academic Support Group (those boys with scores less than 30). Boys scoring 27 points or less may be offered a special workshop presented by an outside provider; they may join 'Diary Club' to learn how to organise themselves better to complete tasks and submit work punctually; they may just receive an encouraging chat from their Year Adviser; they may be referred to the Counsellor; or they may be referred to an outside agency with their parents on very rare occasions. We want to help our underachievers using the most effective means possible. Parents are requested to talk over their son's report with him ahead of booking Parent-Teacher interview time slots.

Prefect Investiture and Leadership Assembly

Thirty-five Prefects received their official badges and signed the Prefects Book at the Investiture Assembly last Friday. To celebrate this affirmation of leadership, other school leadership groups reported on their activities – Community services, Environment, Equality Committee. Ms Rigby has assigned Prefects to roles that help student committee activities. We want to expand this influence of our School Prefects among leadership groups at High. We encourage more reporting for next year's assembly. My speech to the assembly is reprinted below:

Staff, students, parents and Prefects of Sydney Boys High welcome to our official recognition and investiture assembly for our 2016-17 School Prefects. I acknowledge this morning the Gadigal people of the Eora nation as the custodians of the land on which we meet and pay my respects to elders past and present and extend that respect to any Aboriginal people here today.

In many ways the quality of our Prefect body defines the quality of our school life. Participation in the election process, measures the level that school pride has reached, it benchmarks how inspired boys are to commit to qualifying for the role and then carrying it out to the best of their ability. Our boys both bear the weight of and draw inspiration from our traditions. There have been so many great Prefects before them at this school that they must try to emulate. The honour of such a long established role energises them to perform it well.

The Senior Prefect leadership team comprises Hugh Bartley as captain, Lucas Wong as Vice-Captain and Darmesh Sharma as the Senior Prefect. These young men have set a fine standard in taking leadership on social issues – most notably this year on International Women's Day. They have shown the Prefects as a group that the role of Prefect at High can be more than ceremonial duties or representative tasks outside of the school or service to the school in the canteen. They have bedded down the notion that the Prefect group should stand for something, should speak up on a social justice issue or champion a more respectful discourse among boys in our school. They are keenly aware of our espoused values and are endeavouring to live them more directly than has been the case with groups of our leaders in former, years. They are endeavouring to modify our social behaviours so we can truly become the inclusive just and equitable community that we aspire to be. They repeated the profile-raising that started in 2016 by putting themselves forward in the 'Meet the Prefect' series in High Notes, explaining what the Prefect role mean to them. They have enlarged the recently re-imagined role of the School Prefect at High. This growth has in no small measure been facilitated by the careful and caring stewardship of Ms Rigby as Prefect MIC. She has set high standards and held our boys to account. I want to thank her for her dedication to the role and for her effectiveness in it.

To move from internship to the point of getting their perpetual School Prefect badges today, Prefects had to prove that they could meet the requirements for the role. These requirements were demanding. Prefect interns had to continue to meet a predetermined academic standard. They had to maintain their participation in school life, play two GPS sports and earn a Student Awards Scheme Award in their final year. They had to have exemplary standards in behaviour, school dress and punctuality. They had to carry out their internship duties effectively. As in previous years, not all interns successfully pass the series of tests we impose on them, but the overwhelming majority have and they will proudly receive their badges today.

"Leadership is the art of getting someone else to do something you want done because he wants to do it". With apologies for Eisenhower's gendered expression, there is something important that he is getting at. Things are achieved by influencing others to act. They will then do so with conviction because they have adopted the cause or end goal as worthwhile in the context of their own perceptions of their role. Telling people what to do doesn't work as well. It is preferable to have a companion rather than a follower. Prefects are representatives of the staff and are supposed to support the policy settings of the school. They show to the wider community what style of young man the school nurtures. Prefects need to influence by talking to boys in their cohort and by acting as a consistent inspiring role models for younger boys to emulate. Prefects contribute significantly to maintaining the ethos of our school.

The Internship of our Prefects lasts for a full year. From this annual investiture assembly onwards, a new cohort of candidates will have to meet the qualifying standards to be placed on the ballot. They will have to pass the test of democratic election by a constituency of students in Years 10 and 11, teachers and outgoing Prefects. Once elected they will have to perform well until their induction assembly as Prefect Interns and then for the next three school terms until they reach this culminating ceremony of signing the Prefects' Book and receiving their perpetual School Prefects badges.

Sydney Boys High Prefects are special people – they have proven themselves worthy of the honour shown to them. They have earned their recognition and acknowledgement. I congratulate all the students who are to receive their badges today.

Meet the Prefect-Intern

When I joined Sydney High in Year 7, I went to the rite of passage Year 7 camp with my cohort, expecting to meet new friends and have lots of fun. Instead, I found myself balancing on top of a 10 meter-high pole, legs shaking, my acrophobia triggered, terrified for my life as my McKay class watched my pathetic attempt at the 'Leap of Faith', and jumped. I missed, but that didn't matter. I felt enormous pride for doing it. I've heard a saying, "You can't win a race you don't run". For me, high school isn't about whether or not you succeed or about what you achieve, it's about stepping outside your comfort zone, doing things you wouldn't normally do, and giving everything your all. That is how you have the most fulfilling high school experience.

When I think back to my junior self, I remember a socially awkward, lanky teenager, struggling with my insecurities of grades, popularity, and appearance. As I matured, I've learnt that it's not a sign of weakness to tell others that you are struggling. Personally, I'm blessed to have awesome friends in the Christian group (which is held at Room 606 on Friday Lunchtimes).

For anyone who is struggling with school, or just feel like they want to talk, have a chat with friends, family, teachers, or a prefect (all of them are really friendly). I'm sure High School life will treat you well. Take every opportunity you are given, and most importantly, get involved and give everything your all. As the Welfare Prefect, I want to encourage anyone who wants to talk to pop up to me. I will always be willing to listen and help you out.

Stand Tall, Stand for All

National Chinese Eisteddfod 2017

As a student who has participated in the National Chinese Eisteddfod every year since Year 7, this year's experience was truly the most memorable of them all. Entering my final year of high school, I wanted to participate in as many co-curricular activities possible and the Eisteddfod Program was without a doubt at the top of my to-do list. Every High contestant was able to reach his full potential within this program, and achieved some incredible results for Sydney High.

The National Chinese Eisteddfod is one of the largest annual poetry recital competitions outside China, and comprises an individual and a group based competition. This year, we achieved outstanding individual results. I would like to congratulate Blair Zhong, Shu Yuan Zheng and Neil Ni who all came 2nd in the 13-15 age category, Jinnong Zheng who came 2nd in the 16-18 year age group, as well as Justin Liu who came 1st in the 16-18 year age group. Outstanding results were also achieved by our Sydney High groups this year. The 13-15 age group team and 16-18 age group team both came 2nd in their respective categories. Congratulations to all individual and group participants, especially those in year 12 who devoted their time in the midst of a busy HSC year to help mentor and guide the lower year students.

I personally participated in the 16-18 year old age group (Native Mandarin Speakers) and was very fortunate to place 1st in my group. It was an absolute honour to compete against some outstanding students from across the state. As I stood on the podium, I realised how lucky I was to have this opportunity to learn Chinese and be part of this prestigious competition. Thus, many thanks must go to Ms Zhang who spent countless lunchtimes guiding us and teaching us the poems. Thank you for your guidance and wisdom!

To the boys studying Chinese, I would encourage all of you to participate in this program. For those boys who are not studying a language, well, please take a moment to consider what I have to say. You may think learning English will be enough for us. But the world has changed rapidly and if you are a monolingual speaker these days, you are in the minority global context. So, why not study a language as an elective HSC subject? The benefits that come with it are endless.

Finally, I would like to give a huge shoutout to all the boys for making my last year at Sydney High such a memorable one! Hope all of you will keep on working hard and good luck for your future endeavors!

LOVE YOUR JUNIOR LIBRARY

Reading on Reports

Over the years our Junior Library has run a number of programs to stimulate boys reading and these constantly undergo change.

This year for the first time ever we have incorporated a borrowing of school resources section into English reports for Years 7&8. Next semester Year 9 will also receive a reading report. The reason reading is featuring on English reports is to underline to parents, boys and teachers, the importance of acquiring reading skills - including reading speed – as literacy depends on being able to read very well. It is hard to be a good writer, speller or grammarian unless you have been exposed to a lot of intelligent authors' writing and their vocabularies.

The Sydney Boys High School English Department has always emphasised reading to our boys by incorporating Wide Reading into English lessons. These lessons occur once in every three week cycle. The purpose of these lessons is to encourage boys to find a good book they like to read in their library and to borrow it and read it. In their Wide Reading lesson the boys have an hour to find a fabulous book, to trial read it, and the opportunity, right then and there, to borrow it. This includes reading e books.

Student loan records indicate the success of the English Wide Reading program and show up any problems with student literacy. All e book loans and paper- based loan records were accessed from our e book suppliers and our library records. Books read were hand counted against titles loaned out to accurately report student borrowing during Wide Reading periods. Students who borrowed zero – 0 books in Wide Reading periods received a "Developing" as they read during the period but did not commit to a literate follow up. Students who borrowed only 1 book in three months of Wide Reading lessons got a "Competent". Students who borrowed 2-4 books were given "Well Developed" and students who borrowed 5+ books were given "Highly Developed". Please congratulate those wonderful boys who read well - they deserve your recognition.

Reading Has Never Been Easier or More Attractive

We have 3500 paper based fiction books in our library. All books are genre shelved to make finding books you like very easy. We have approximately 1500 e books in our e Collections. All boys have personal laptops to read them on. All of our books have covers on the Oliver search system thanks to our lovely library monitors.

Collecting Reading Statistics – Good Spin Off

The creation of these school reports allowed our library to analyse and define acceptable reading levels. It also opens this topic up for discussion among our educators. It is assumed that every primary student is a competent reader. If you really think about it primary students may have learned to read but may not have had much time to acquire the speed needed to read a larger and more condensed (no pictures) secondary school young adult text. This needs practise.

Due to examination of multiple borrowing of (mainly) e books our library is now re-negotiating the 2 week reading period to a four week period with our e book suppliers. We have also realised that it typically takes at least 4 weeks for our students to finish a book. And this is fine.

Another aspect of boys reading we have noticed from e book analysis is that they are all borrowing the same small collection of e books. A bit of adventurous borrowing would not hurt.

Booking Interviews with Your Son's Teachers

This year we will again use a web based electronic scheduling system for arranging interviews. This produces better results for all participants, especially more compact time schedules for both parents and teachers. The system works as follows –

- On Wednesday 14 June all parents of boys in Year 7 and 11 will be sent by email details of the scheduling system and a unique code to be entered at www.edval.com.au/book.
- On Tuesday 20 June all parents of boys in Years 8 and 10 will be sent by email details of the scheduling system and a unique code to be entered at www.edval.com.au/book.
- This email was/will be sent to the address currently held by the school. If you have not received this email by the following day or, if your email address has changed from what had been previously advised to the school, you should notify the school at ptnight@sbhs.nsw.edu.au advising of this. Please indicate your son's name and roll class or date of birth so that the information can be forwarded to you.
- On the Edval website you will see your son's teachers listed and you will be able to select those with whom you require an interview. (If you hover over a teacher's name, the subject involved will be shown.) At the same time you can indicate your availability between 3:00 pm and 7:00 pm.
- Once the majority of parents have requested interviews, the overall schedule will be generated by the school and your individual schedule should be available for you to download and print from two days before the interviews.
- Periods will be shortened on the days of the interviews. Boys from all Years will be dismissed from class at 2:35pm each day. School Special buses will run to normal schedules and there will be supervision available in the Junior Quad of boys waiting for these buses.
- Interviews should not exceed five minutes' duration. If there is insufficient time, a further appointment may be made for a later date, or contact by telephone arranged.

HIGH CLASS 2022 Brick Appeal

Dear Fellow Year 7 Parents

Thanks so much to those families who have already donated to the "HIGH CLASS 2022" Governors Centre brick appeal. We have received $210 as of 2 June.

We would love to reach the $1000 as soon as we can. If your son does not have the specially marked envelope, please put $10 or more in any envelope with your son's name, class and email address written clearly on it. He can take it to the Development Office.

As well as the 2022 class brick, now is also the time to donate to the Brick Appeal for your own personalised family brick. Our Year 7 boys are so fortunate that the Governors Centre will be built in time for them to reap the full benefits. For a one-off gift of $1000 or ten monthly installments, a brick will be inscribed with the name of your choice and placed on the brick wall at the Governors Centre. This will ensure your family's name is always remembered and honoured at our great school.

HIGH ACHIEVERS AND MENTORING

The Old Boys Union is holding the biennial High Achievers supported by one of its Mentoring sessions on the 28 June, where we've invited high achieving Old Boys to come back and offer some of their wisdom for current students at High! These events show us what life outside of High is like, smoothening the transition between high school, university and the work force, to help current students leave a mark upon society.

The event will feature guests of a variety of occupations such as Allen Liao of 2010 who founded Tzukuri and Thomas Kaldor of 2005 who is currently a lawyer. These individuals and 20 more like them, ranging from CEOs and entrepreneurs, to doctors and engineers, will show us how an education at Sydney High has contributed to their ongoing success in the world.

Boggabilla Cultural Exchange 2017

Dear Parents,
The Boggabilla Cultural program is one of the most special opportunities in which our boys are able to participate.

In Week 9 Term 2 the students from Boggabilla Central School will be coming to Sydney for their annual exchange and we need a number of billets for these students. If you are able to host students for the two nights (Tuesday 20 and Wed 21 June) could you please let me know? We try to billet in twos where possible to alleviate anxiety for the students.

Boys who are billeting these students will also be involved in some of the activities held with them over the course of their exchange and will be guaranteed a spot when we visit them.

If you are able to billet students and are interested in your son participating in this exchange please email me on cottonm@sbhs.nsw.edu.au or alternatively get your son to speak to me ASAP.

I would like to lock down the spots quickly.

Many thanks
Mr Cotton

From the Canteen

Run by the P&C, the High canteen not only provides an extensive range of healthy hot and cold options for our hungry boys but also raises substantial funds for specific projects. Last year, canteen contributed $80,000. This is possible primarily due to the support of our dedicated parent volunteers who assist canteen managers Tracey and Karen. Infact, we are one of the few high school canteens to do so. If you have a few hours to spare each month, please do consider joining our canteen roster by calling 96629350. Besides keeping costs low, it is a great way of making new friends and staying in touch with extended High family. Language is never a barrier and full training will be provided.

We would like to acknowledge the following parent helpers for the past two weeks:

2017 MUSIC CAMP

155 SBHS students (Years 7-12) left Driver Avenue for Music Camp on a chilli Wednesday morning (31 May) to the Collaroy Centre for 3 days of intensive music rehearsals and workshops with Music Staff, Conductor and Tutors. A Music Camp concert was then held on Friday 2 of June, in the Great Hall. All ensembles from Strings, Orchestra's, Stage Bands, Concert Bands, Jazz, Percussion, and Clarinet Ensembles performed a wide range of repertoire finishing off with a spectacular combined ensemble item, "Carmina Burana (Fortuna Imperatrix Mundi)" by Carl Orff arranged by Jay Bocook.

The Music Department would like to thank all students and staff for helping out at Music Camp. Big thanks goes to Year 12s! We wish you all the best of luck for your HSC!

Round Two was played against the very tenacious, St Ignatius' College, Riverview. Equal favourites with Newington they were always going to be tough. The 1st XI conceded three goals in the first eight minutes, taking us right out of the game. The boys came back well, but was too big of a deficit to chase down.

Jonathan Meng for the 1st XI

With twelve teams still remaining undefeated there is tight competition for the Dolan Cup. Well done to Adam Masen scoring five goals on Saturday to top the leader board in goals.

Ikko Ehode Arimoto for the 15As

Good luck and keep working hard and the results will come.

1st XV Report

Hoping to carry on the winning momentum from the week before, we lifted the intensity of our training sessions throughout the week to a whole new level. With another 11am game, the whole squad was looking forward to another ripper of a game to show off our skill and finesse which as a team we have all worked very hard on.

The Saturday showed a mixed array of results in the junior grades with a couple of close games despite missing players due to cadets. 16s with a wonderful turnout, saw two victories despite the Bs having an unfinished game while second grade continued their streak of dominance within the comp with a convincing and easy win.

Kicking off in first grade, we saw an evenly matched contest for ball and territory in the first 10 minutes of the game. With an audience again gathered to watch, spirit and morale was high. Our set piece dominating every facet of the game, trumping the Riverview forward pack. After a period of continued possession and consistent success in the lineouts, it was ironical that one of our miss-timed lineouts saw the ball land in the hands of Leo Li and from 5 metres from the line, saw him cross for the first try; first blood to High.

Following the restart, our strong attack yet again pressured and tested Iggie's defence. With more prominent running throughout the team, we quickly gained metres and yet again pressured the opposition 22. Contrasting the week before, Riverview had showed up to play, with a larger physical presence compared to Shore's. Harder to bust through and through an unfortunate uncharacteristic pass, the Iggie's No.7 plucked the ball in mid-air and scored a try, High down 5-7 at half time.

Unfortunately, unable to cross the line in the second half, we had to face a disappointing defeat.

Gaining from this experience, there is still a lot to learn about ourselves. Our defence shined despite our complacency within the Shore game however Riverview was an eye opener for our need to increase our physicality and intensity especially when we play Joeys on the hill in two weeks' time.

Team of the Week 2XV

The GPS season has started off very well for the 2nd XV, with two wins over Shore and St. Ignatius. The game against St. Ignatius, went much better when looking at the scoreboard, with a 45-5 victory. Matching numbers with 13 a side, we dominated for the whole game, spreading the ball wide to get around their defence. Having gained more players during the week, we swapped most of our team out for the second half. With most of the team in unfamiliar positions we played as best we could, but still dominated the other team. We are looking forward to the rest of the season that continues to be as successful.

Congratulations!!

Talent and hard work has paid off for William Choi who has been chosen to represent CHS U16s rugby. A great result and we wish you all the best!!
