The War in Ukraine

Just as we ask for sensitivity and discretion in our utterances and written communications around the Ukrainian conflict when students or staff with cultural ties to Ukraine are in our classes, teams or activities, so too must we respect the feelings of those with Russian affiliations who may be conflicted or distressed by the events in Ukraine. Now is the time to demonstrate our twin values of compassion and respect.

International Women's Day 8 March #Generation Equality

Gender equality today for a sustainable tomorrow. This year's theme could not be more topical for us here in Australia as we live in the Continent most susceptible to climate change and we rank 14th in OECD countries in regard to gender equality practices. Tackling climate change and environmental degradation and boosting disaster risk reduction is the theme of this year's Commission on the Status of Women. Women play a crucial role in the climate and environmental sectors, and they are often leading frontline natural resource management strategies. This makes them well-placed to identify and implement effective and sustainable solutions. Yet environmental degradation and increased competition over scarce resources are exacerbating the risk of gender-based violence while women environmental human rights defenders, including indigenous women, often face threats and violence. The United Nations Development Program (UNDP) and the University of Pittsburgh's Global Report on Gender Equality in Public Administration show that even though women are disproportionately impacted by the climate and environmental crises, they are still hitting a glass ceiling that stops them from advancing to the highest levels of leadership in environmental protection and climate action. Women's participation in ministries of environmental protection averages 33% globally. The UNDP's Climate Promise is currently assisting 120 countries to enhance their climate pledges, known as National Determined Contributions (NDCs). These NDCs are important vehicles for advancing not only sustainable development but also gender equality. Globally, over 110,000 people have engaged in NDC stakeholder consultations and women are leading the process in many cases.' At High, we need to understand and embrace our obligation to advance the cause of gender equality in our actions and utterances.

The Technology Levy

At High, the 2021 expenditure for technology and communication in teaching and learning was $987,700. To support technology the Department of Education makes an annual grant of hardware. All of the current budget is paid for by parents and school generated funds. We are not an eT4L school. Our specifications for ICT exceed DoE standards and we support these higher standards ourselves. In 2021, parents contributed $375,108 by way of their contributions to the Technology Levy. The wages bill for our four ICT staff members and HT teacher relief alone was $475,000. Our Classroom Technology Project specific expenditure for 2021 was $200,000. Network project upgrades cost $118,000. Recurring and maintenance expenses ($90,200). Sentral, Edval and related software, as well as building works and furniture for room fit-outs, cost $104,500. We expect to spend $915,800 on technology and communication support for learning this year. The plan equates to $758 for each student. Our technology levy is requested from parents to ensure that our school can supply cutting-edge technology and online tools for teaching and learning. It would be very beneficial for our learning improvement if as many parents as possible supported our technology in teaching and learning program by paying their levy. Your support is very much appreciated. The wonderful support of our parents over the last 22 years contributing their technology levy has enabled us to keep upgrading our services to staff and students to be at the leading edge of blended learning delivery.

Early Bird Discounts Have Closed

Parents of students in Years 8-12 have had an opportunity to earn a substantial discount in return for paying all of the items listed in their invoice letters. The scheme concluded at close of business on Friday, March 11. Discounts no longer apply as from Monday, March 14. Thank you to so many parents who have supported the school fully in its efforts to provide high quality facilities and resources for everyone. It is very much appreciated.

Invoices for Summer Activities Co-payments

Families in Year 7, and those later year enrolments, have had statements emailed for term 1 activities. Despite these charges, most activities are also heavily subsidised from school funds, particularly in direct grants from school funds (voluntary contributions), provision of MICs, teacher supervision, WHS compliance costs and first aid costs (co-curricular supervision levy) and parking allocation support. Co-payments are used primarily for the provision of coaching. In basketball alone, a team of over 40 people delivers the program! We have staff, students, Old Boys, parents and volunteers working to make your son's school experiences more enjoyable. It would be appreciated if you could make your co-payments promptly for your son's summer sport and co-curricular activities. Thank you.

A Message from the Equality Committee...

The Equality Committee is a group that was formed with the intention to prevent discrimination and promote equality at Sydney Boys High School. To give more information about what we do, we have put together a short article so future members understand our present commitments to the school and what activities we have planned for the year.

Discrimination And You

Every year, we go into the Year 7 Values Education classes and present a PowerPoint presentation on "What is Discrimination" and teach students how to report discrimination online through Canvas. It is essential to us that any incidents don't go unnoticed around the school.

The Equality Conference

This is a full day event where several schools including James Ruse, Sydney Girls and more, come together to promote inter-school discussion. We have several workshops and promote discussion between schools on reducing discrimination in our community. Guest speakers also attend this conference to talk about their experiences with discrimination which creates new perspectives for us to understand.

Wear It Purple Day

This is a mufti day which we organise in support of LGBTQ+ youth. On this day, students are encouraged to wear purple. They can also purchase purple hairspray or nail polish for a gold coin donation.

There are still some spaces left for Year 7s and 8s in the Equality Committee and we would love for some new members to keep the committee running after we've left. We encourage you to apply by sending an email to Ms Stephens giving the reasons why you want to be a representative. See you soon! Award scheme points apply.

Meet The Prefect

What makes High special?

Without even stepping into this mammoth of a school, you will hear from parents praising that 'Sydney Boys is a sports-focused school, plus it's a selective school.' Looking back, High greatly exceeded beyond these expectations I had in Year 6.

On the surface, High, being a unique hybrid of GPS and selective, provides a myriad of opportunities which assists every student in achieving all-round excellence. But deeper, it is how these moments play out which makes the high school journey at High so enjoyable. It's about the unity and pride felt when we put our hands together to shout, "1 2 3 High!", the additional time spent outside the classroom with your mates and the celebration of successes, no matter the size, on the fields, courts or water, which has made it such a fun experience. It's during these moments where lifelong friends and memories are made, the sense of brotherhood is created and where High Spirit thrives.

What do you love about swimming at High?

The unified roars, the drums, the chants, the flags, the flashlights and the clapping which all occur on a Friday night after a long week of school. As I look up from the pool deck onto the grandstands of SOPAC, I will never forget the supportive efforts of High students who rally with their arms around others and cheer regardless of the outcome. It's this unfathomable amount of support and motivation from the swimming team, teachers, the boisterous crowds, memories and friends that makes competing for High on the five Friday nights truly special.

What is your role as Publications Prefect?

The Publication role entails maintaining our Prefect body's relationship with students, parents, teachers, old boys, other schools and the public. In particular, this involves administrating the Prefects' social media accounts on Instagram and Facebook to reach, update and engage the wider school community on various Prefect initiatives, events and highlights; to liaise with prefects from other schools for interschool activities; and reply to any messages or questions. Although this role may be time-demanding, it has been fun to work with Anthony Wang to design, compile, organise and publish the 'Meet the Prefect' articles, including this one. I've been able to develop my editing and design skills along the way, and it's always fulfilling to see our posts help promote the Prefects to the past, present and future school community.

What makes Debating at High special?

The Debating program at High is amongst the best in all of NSW, especially the GPS. We take pride in our continued success in the GPS, PDC, Eastside and FED debating competitions, having won numerous titles in previous years. Debating provides students with an opportunity to work on both their verbal communication and expand their knowledge of current social affairs. Even for those who are perhaps not as confident in giving lengthy substantive, Debating provides a welcoming and enjoyable atmosphere that helps nurture discussion and understanding. From the late nights with your team to the anticipation of a well-deserved supper, Debating at High is an experience that will undoubtedly stick with you for the rest of your life.

How can students make the most of life at High?

Students at High are in a unique position that grants them the ability to pursue just about anything they can dream of. Making the most of your time at High comes down to two concepts: 1) Participation and 2) Enjoying the Ride. Participation is perhaps the most crucial but straightforward way to make your experience at High memorable. High provides a plethora of different clubs, which students can take advantage of and use to explore what they are passionate about. But as anyone you know would agree, the best part of any rollercoaster is the ride, so it's best not to worry yourself about the start or pray that the end is near. It's always best to push through the ups and downs and take pleasure in the present. Enjoy your time at High and make sure to leave with no regrets.

What does being a Prefect mean to you?

Prefectship is underlined by a person's selflessness as well as their commitment to the service of other students at High. To become a Prefect, I have had to continually apply myself to not only better myself and reach my goals, but also help those around me. I have, in turn, found more satisfaction in my time at High by establishing strong bonds with my peers and being able to be of help to them. Being a Prefect is no different to just being a good friend and always sticking up for your mates.

What's basketball at High like?

Being one of the most popular, competitive, and successful sport programs, High basketball has truly been a highlight of my high school life. The past 5 years of basketball at High have definitely influenced and shaped me for who I am. The inspirational coaches I've had throughout the years have taught me many essential values in achieving success such as discipline, determination, and perseverance. These values not only apply for basketball but also translate to school and life in general. It is these values that makes High's basketball program so unique and rewarding for its players.

The unforgettable feeling as you're being clapped into the game with the support and cheers of hundreds, and the small but impactful moments during game that strengthen the bonds with teammates, are the experiences that lead me to love High basketball. Through the many losses I've experienced in my basketball career and the thousands of missed shots, I've come to realise that basketball at Sydney High isn't just about winning or how many points you've scored. It's about the bonds created with friends, family, coaches, and even opponents. It's about representing the school and striving for excellence. It's about recovering from your losses in order to win. As one of my teammates once said, "You never lose. You only learn..."

What does your role as public relations prefect entail?

As the Public Relations Prefect and a member of the Public Relations Team, I have various duties and responsibilities which revolve around the school, its students, parents, other schools, and the public. My team and I manage and run the school social media accounts (Instagram and Facebook), which are used for the promotion of our prefect body (such as the 'Meet the Prefect') and the communication of our ideas, events, and future goals to the public. As a member of the team, I try to ensure everyone in the school community is aware of school activities and events, strengthening the connection between old boys, juniors, and seniors of the school.

Meet the Teacher

For our first Meet the Teacher for 2022, we will get to know Mr Geoff Stein from the PE department

1. Describe a little bit about yourself and your role at this school.

I am an Old boy of the school. I arrived at the school in 1998. I have been involved in the rugby program since 1998. Currently, I am the Head Teacher of PDHPE.

2. Describe a little bit about your background in education and how you came to be a PD/H/PE teacher at this school.

I have a diploma in PDHPE (Sydney Teachers College), and a BA in PDHPE and MA in Sports studies (CSULB). I have taught in four different NSW schools, 1977 – 1979, 1990 to present, and also I taught in California, 1983 – 1984. It was always a goal to teach at SBHS someday.

3. What do you find unique about teaching at SBHS?

The Saturday GPS sport expectation and commitment is a huge difference to other schools for both the staff and students.

4. What is a fun fact about you?

I spent five years, 1980 – 1984, studying and teaching in California picking up an American accent that I haven't been able to lose.

Year 7 Progress Reports

All students in Year 7 will be receiving an interim report by Week 10 on how they are progressing in each of their subjects. These reports will be issued by their classroom teachers to provide an overview of how students are settling into the school.

There will be opportunities for further feedback and discussion in Term 2 through both the Semester 1 Reports and the Parent Teacher Interviews. If there are any specific concerns regarding a student's progress following these reports, teachers can be contacted through the front office as needed.

The World's Greatest Shave has returned at SBHS and this year there are more options to contribute than ever before! So far, we have raised $2000 and are aiming for $5000. The World's Greatest Shave is conducted by the Leukemia Foundation, with all proceeds from the event going to critical support for Leukemia patients – accommodation, transportation, mental research etc. This year there are 5 methods you can contribute.

Before the day you can pledge to brave the shave through registering on the World's Greatest Shave website under our school team and ask friends/family to donate to your page. If you are unwilling to shave, you can still support the cause through donating to your friends or the school via the webpage attached using a card or donate cash and coins at deposit buckets around the school – 306 outside Mr Ormsby's office and at the canteen. Every dollar counts!

On the day – Monday March 21st – registered applicants will go under the blade. However, anyone can still be involved by hair spraying your hair pink for $5, or an all-time first, get a mullet for $6.

Display your high spirit by supporting your friends, your school, and this important cause.

Our webpage for registration and donations can be accessed here:

Love your library

FROM THE ANDREWS LIBRARY

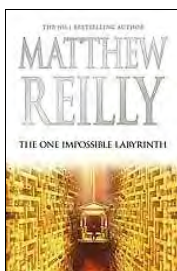

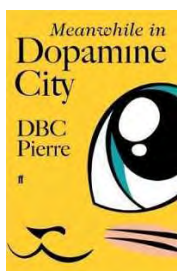

JUST PURCHASED – NEW BOOKS THIS YEAR

Last Friday I had a wonderful day in the City, purchasing a great collection of new books for this library. Over the next few weeks, I will be displaying this purchase so you can find some reading that is right up to the minute writing. Have fun with these books!

One of the most important things about being a reader is that you have the opportunity to examine very relevant and new ideas that writers are testing out by including them in the plots of their novels or by writing an entire book examining some current thinking. Trend setting reading and analysing is what characterises an educated man or woman.

New books we process go onto display shelving for you to borrow that are all the way down the library shelving facing you. Books on display in our library corridors are also covers of our new books for the year. Have a look for a new book as you go past.

Do check your emails. Both our school libraries send you emails regularly to display the newest books we have just finished processing for you. New books just going onto shelves, below.

ANOTHER BOOK REVIEW FROM OUR GENEROUS LIBRARY MONITORS

Heroes Of Olympus: The Blood of Olympus By Rick Riordan

The Blood of Olympus is the fifth and final book of the Heroes Of Olympus series, written by Rick Riordan. In the book, a team of seven demigods attempt to stop the rebirth of Gaea. Jason, Annabeth and Piper go undercover and try to gain information about the enemies plans. While this happens Nico, Reyna and Coach try to return the Athena Pantheon to Camp Half Blood and Leo and the others try to obtain the Physician's Cure. Though soon Gaea is able to resurrect, and the heroes have to attempt to win another battle.

Heroes of Olympus in general is an amazing series that should be recommended to most. The characters are extremely relatable as teenagers and are easy to generate a bond with. This is why I would highly recommend the book and the series.

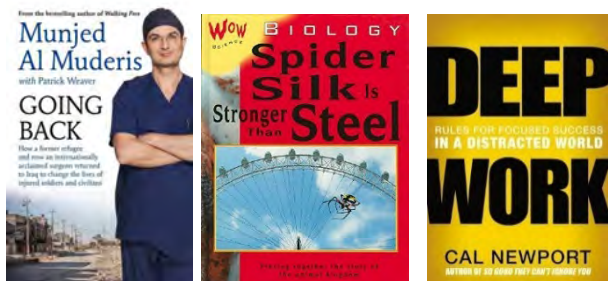

The book has many action scenes and is extremely descriptive. The book relates back to many Greek and Roman characters and monsters. This along with the many plot twists make the book a page turner and often it is hard to stop reading. In the book there are many relationships, characters and plots going on at the same time, however it is extremely well managed. As often, the plot changes to the next without feeling rushed and you never will forget a character and there are many memorable moments.

To conclude, this book is an action-packed novel and is in my favourite book series. The book and the series in general should be recommended to all 9+.

SPECIAL BINS FOR NON-FICTION LOVERS – POPULAR READING

One lockdown job for me was to find and tag a reading list for boys who love to know all the facts and figures about new inventions, new scientific knowledge, new technology or new philosophies or currently newsworthy people including sportsmen. If you click into the Reading Lists on Oliver Front page you will find this list called "Popular Reading". Even if you really love Fiction, you will find such interesting topics here that you will be very tempted to read about them. A taste of this collection is now being housed in three new bins along the Non-Fiction (new books) display area. We strongly recommend that you have a look in these bins to see what takes your fancy. These books are for boys who do not necessarily want to read fiction. There are currently 231 books in this reading list so you will not run out of fun reading and exploring in a hurry. Sample below!

HIGH SAILING

This week, Wednesday and Thursday training was cancelled for sailing due to the abnormally high wind. Instead, we decide to turn to the whiteboard and focus on mark traps and tactics we wanted to use in certain positions to gain the advantage in the race.

On Saturday we put to work our training from the weekday in the low to moderate winds. Despite being our weakest winds the 1st Grade boys managed to put up an admirable performance. The 2nd Grade team has also gained much needed experience need and will put that into practice for future races. As the season continues, we hope to improve our light wind racing speed as that will be the key to helping us in States.

Try Rugby Day

Unfortunately, the fun day we had planned was washed-out, so we had a quick presentation and talk to the Year 7's about the experiences current students had playing Rugby. What shone out was that Rugby was fun, safe and the students who played it formed many strong friendships and loved their experiences together. The sport also embodies the school values and embeds many skills for life.

Year 7 Rugby is about having fun, learning the game and playing with friends. There is no contact until the boys are ready and we play at a level that suits us.

Year 7 boys who want to play rugby are advised to choose rugby as their winter sport and try it out. If they decide they would prefer another sport they can choose after giving it a go.

If you have concerns about your son choosing Rugby or want to see more about Rugby at High please see the school website:

<https://www.sydneyboyshigh.com/sport/winter/rugby>

After a survey last year our old boys noted that the friendships, they formed enjoying co-curricular and in-particular playing rugby, came top of the list for what has helped open doors for them once they had left school, entered university, the workplace and throughout life. Most of our school captains and leaders have been rugby players. This is not chance.

SHOOTIN' 287 HOOPS

It was a great week of basketball at HIGH this week against The Scots College. Many teams managed to win some games, but our firsts and seconds just couldn't grab the dub. Both the Firsts, Seconds and any other team that lost this week can take away a lot of experience, learn and improve from the tough opponents. The HIGH teams that won like the 3rds showed the rest of us that hard work pays off and any team no matter how good you think they are, anyone is beatable. They have been training really hard, smart and together. As usual Isaac Ayoubi had an amazing game, with 35 points! The 15A's were just 1 three pointer away from securing the dub, but are sure to beat Scots in the future, especially if a home game. The best takeaway from weeks like this, is to keep your head down and keep working hard. Hard work is always rewarded and hard work as a team result in dubs. With our last game coming up last makes sure to end the season with a bang. Good luck to all team's vs Kings this week and let's get some well-deserved dubs!

NBA NEWS

The Miami Heat have increased their lead in the Eastern Conference, no longer tailed by the Chicago Bulls, who have fallen from 2nd to 4th, Philadelphia replacing them. The Western Conference still sees the Phoenix Suns ahead of the game, the gap between the Golden State Warriors however growing. In the Eastern Conference, the Miami Heat had a win of 17 points against the 76ers on March 6th local time, ending the 76ers' five-win streak. In an exciting game, the Celtics beat the Nets, 126 - 120 in a shoot off between Jason Tatum and Kevin Durant, scoring 54 and 37 points, respectively. The Celtics are picking up their pace, becoming a contender to win the Eastern Conference. Ben Simmons is still unable to play for the Nets, due to back soreness and will probably be out for the much-anticipated game against Philadelphia on March 11, local time. In the Western Conference, LeBron James has delivered 56 points in a game on March 6th, the Lakers beating the Golden State Warriors.

It is the most he has scored for the Lakers, his career-high being 61 points for the Miami Heat in 2014. LeBron also had 10 rebounds and helped break a losing streak of four games. Australian rookie Josh Giddey of the OKC Thunder currently has a hip injury and will not be able to play for a while. In NBL news, the Sydney Kings have dropped from 2nd to 5th, replaced by the Southeast Melbourne Phoenix. Melbourne United still remain in the lead, two wins ahead of SEM Phoenix. On March the 6th, the Sydney Kings beat the undermanned Cairns Taipans, 98 - 88. In a recent interview that has a message for us all, Tasmania JackJumpers' MiKyle McIntosh credited his improvements on doing better at practice. He said, "I struggled at first trying to get into the swing of things and trying to play the coach's way and doing everything that way. It was an adjustment, but I thank him for believing in me." A big thanks to all our HIGH coaches, too!

Mr Hayman and the squad receive their award in front of all the schools in Australia for 10 years of straight participation at Elite National level at the National Championships.

Go HIGH!
Play Hard, Play Smart and Play Together!
Thanks to everyone who makes Shootin' Hoops possible
Brought to you Xavier Perry and Lucas Adamson.

Tennis Week 6 Update

Almost all Tennis players were able to have a fixture on Saturday which was great to see. Scots are a very strong school and our boys competed well. There were some great results in the 14's & 15's. I have been very impressed with the dedication shown by the players to continue to show up to training when it has been raining and completing indoor fitness. Well done to the boys!

A reminder that if your son is unable to attend a training session please email me richk@sbhs.nsw.edu.au & Absences.Sport@sbhs.nsw.edu.au by 5pm Thursday. If your son cannot attend his Saturday fixture, please email before the start of the match.

ABOUT DUKE OF ED

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award is the world's leading youth development program, enabling young Australians aged 14 - 24 to become empowered through physical activity, voluntary service, new life skills and adventurous journeys.

It's an opportunity for young people to become "World Ready", build resilience and upskill for future career and study opportunities.

TESTIMONIALS

PARTICIPANT

The Award helped break down cultural and personal barriers, pushing limits and exploring my strength and weakness. I volunteered at Meals on Wheels and with local refugees, providing free translating & tutoring services and hiked 2 weeks in New Zealand.

AWARD CENTRE

The Duke of Ed is a highly valuable element of the extra-curricular program. It gives individuals a sense of achievement, to challenge themselves and keep trying when they are struggling and out of their comfort zones. The Voluntary Service aspect is a great opportunity to make a positive contribution to others in their school or wider community.

AWARD CENTRES

Any organisation that works directly with young people can become an Award Centre and deliver the Award.

WHERE CAN I START MY AWARD?

Participants can complete their Award through any registered Award Centre. Award Centres can include:

- Your School or University
- Your sports club or community group
- NSW Open Award Centres
